

and therefore I feel entitled to speak of it as perfect.

After a while I learned through my doctor, (Dr. MacCarthy) that Dr. MacDonnell King is your brother. There is nothing in that, one might say to warrant wanting your time on congratulations, but let us see -

It so happens that I have spent 36 years in the exhausting atmosphere of factory life, that atmosphere, which, with its foul dreads, killing the ethical quality of man, is so often, and as I believe in my case, the cause of another foul disease I. B. The two conditions are comparable, for they both slowly exhaust the life-blood of peoples and are of man's own conception, that is, not of God's.

You have spent the better part of your working life in studying the problems of labor, and have, ~~and~~ as it seems to me from my reading,
