Ottawa 11th March, 1912.

Sir,

While not adverse to making you an allowance of $50.00 a year for office rent, the Department will be glad to receive a definite report as to your present arrangements for office accommodation. When your report is received the matter will be further considered. You should make it clear what necessity exists for the provision of an office.

Your obedient servant.

Asst. Deputy &amp; Secretary.
