move, whether into Thailand or elsewhere in south Asia, would be regarded as a Japanese attempt to dominate the whole Pacific area; and the United States Government made it clear they could not tole rate this situation.

W.L.M. King Papers, Memoranda and Notes, 1940-1950, MG 26 J 4, Volume 360, pages C248564-C249290

PUBLIC ARCHIVES ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES CANADA