

FEMININE.

I.

1. Names of virtues: la foi, faith; la charité, charity; la tempérance, &c.

EXCEPTION.—Le courage, le mérite.

2. Names of vices: la cruauté, la luxure, la paresse; cruelty, luxury, idleness.

EXCEPTION.—Orgueil, pride.

II.

1. Names of countries when ending with a silent e: la France, la Russie, la Belgique.

EXCEPTIONS.—(See the third of the preceding rules for the masculine.)

2. Names of mountains when ending with a silent e, followed by a sign of the plural: les Alpes, les Pyrénées, les Cévennes, les Cordillères, &c.

3. Names of rivers when ending with a silent e: la Seine, la Loire, la Garonne, &c.

EXCEPTIONS.—(See the third of preceding rules for the masculine.)

List of nouns the most used which are masculine in one signification and feminine in another.

Masculine.

a—aise	helper
aigle	eagle
aune	alder (tree)
c—le champagne	wine
crêpe	crape
critique	a critic
d—délice (sing.)	delight
e—enseigne	an officer
exemple	an example
f—faux	a falsehood

Feminine.

aide	help
aigle	standard
aune	ell (measure)
la champagne	province
crêpe	pancake
critique	criticism
délices (plus)	delights
enseigne	flag or sign
exemple	writing copy
une faux	a scythe