

3d. To those submitted by any Member of the Class.

The Classes at every Ordinary General Meeting shall report upon the merits of all productions which may have been submitted or referred to them, and shall at the same time recommend the rewards that they deem the same entitled to receive, and shall, at every such Meeting, make a general report upon their respective proceedings.

The meetings and proceedings of the Classes shall be recorded by their respective Secretaries. The Classes shall prepare bye-laws for their own government; none of which are to be inconsistent with the fundamental rules of the Institution.

QUORUMS

At all General Meetings shall not consist of less than fifteen Members. Five Members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum at all Meetings of that body. Five Members shall form a quorum at a Class Meeting.
