

enables him to afford travellers information nowhere else to be had. As will be seen from the list of lines he represents, Mr. Leve commands a wide circuit for the tourist. He can provide him with a ticket almost around the world, or he can make the pleasure-journey as short as required. And after supplying all information, granting tickets and providing hotel coupons or state-rooms, he finishes the arrangement with the tourist by providing him, if he so wishes, with a policy of insurance against accident, and this at rates lower than can be elsewhere reached, he being the special agent in Montreal for the Accident Insurance Company of Canada. In short, there seems nothing that the traveller can possibly wish that cannot be provided at the Montreal General Agency of the South Eastern Railway and Montreal & Boston Air Line.

GUSTAVE LEVE,
Montreal Agent.
