

(2) The use of works borrowed from the Library as text or class books is strictly forbidden, and when a Student transgresses this by-law, he forfeits all the privileges of a reader for the rest of the Session.

(3) No Student entitled to the use of the Library shall have his class tickets signed by any Professor without producing the Librarian's certificate, testifying that his position as regards the Library is in accordance with the by-laws.

(4) Every registered Student, having placed on record in a book kept by the Librarian his intention to return to the University, is entitled to borrow for summer reading five volumes and no more at one time, but for this privilege he shall deposit the sum of five dollars with the Librarian, whose receipt must be given up before the deposit can be returned. All books borrowed under this regulation must be returned in the following Session within eight days after the opening of the classes in the Faculty to which the Student will then belong.

(5) When books are not returned at the end of the period for which they may be taken out, a fine of five cents a volume shall be paid by the borrower, and a further fine of three cents a volume for each day as long as they are not returned, until the amount of the fine equal the price at which the book or books retained can be replaced. If the period close on a holiday, or a day on which the Library is closed, the first day thereafter on which the Library is open shall be the day on which books should be returned. Fines due on books borrowed for summer reading shall be deducted from the borrower's deposit, and fines due on books borrowed during the Session shall cause suspension of the use of the Library until the books be returned and the fines paid.

(6) The Secretary or any member of the Board of Trustees may have four volumes in his possession at one time, and for one month at a time.

(7) Any Professor or Lecturer actually engaged in teaching may borrow eight volumes at a time, and for one month at a time.

(8) The Librarian is entitled to the use of five volumes for two weeks at one time.

(9) Any Graduate of the University who is not a registered Student, having deposited five dollars in the hands of the Librarian and paid a subscription of three dollars, is entitled for one year from the date of deposit and subscription to the same privilege as registered Students, but, in other respects, only on the same terms as registered Students.
