

CONTENTS.

ix

CHAPTER XII.

	PAGE
Advance upon Madrid—Reception at Madrid—The French in the East, the South, and the North of Spain—Departure for Burgos—Proclamation to the Spaniards—Attack upon, and Retreat from Burgos—Hill and Soult at Alba de Torines—Circular on the subject of Discipline—Feeling excited by the Circular	179

CHAPTER XIII.

Feeling in England regarding Salamanca and Burgos—Meeting of Parliament—Speeches—Lord Wellington becomes Commander-in-Chief of the Spanish Armies—Goes to Cadiz to meet the Cortes—Obtains the Colonelcy of the Royal Horse Guards—Goes to Lisbon	199
---	-----

CHAPTER XIV.

A Glance at Napoleon's Russian Campaign, and the State of Affairs in the East of Spain	211
--	-----

CHAPTER XV.

Old Soldiers—Second in Command—Preparations for the ensuing Campaign—Remonstrances addressed to the Spanish and Portuguese Governments—Advance into Spain—Battle of Vittoria	223
--	-----

CHAPTER XVI.

Reception of the News of the Battle of Vittoria in England—Failure of Sir John Murray at Tarragona—Advance into the Pyrenees—Reappearance of Marechal Soult—His Proclamation	246
--	-----

CHAPTER XVII.

San Sebastian taken—Pampeluna capitulates.	272
--	-----

CHAPTER XVIII.

Battle of the Nivelle—Proclamation of Louis XVIII.—Lord Wellington's view of the French feeling in respect to a Successor to Napoleon—The War in Germany—The Battle of Leipsic—Advance of the Northern Allies to Frankfort—Declaration of the Allies	296
--	-----