

$1.75

delivered, all charges paid, ONLY

CANADIAN FELT-LINED CLOG CO., Bept. D. 363 Spadina Ave., Toronto, Canada

FARM AND DAIRY

My Friend

"I am the best pal that I ever had I like to be with me. I like to sit and tell myself Things confidentially.

"I often sit and ask me If I shouldn't or I should. And I find that my advice to me always pretty good

"I never got acquainted with Myself till here of late. And I find myself a bully chum I treat me simply great

"I talk with me and walk with me And show me right and wrong.

There are some noble women

THERE is no happier nor more cozy picture of home life than the little family group gathered about the evening lamp, while some member of it reads aloud. These evening readings can be made educational and develop in many ways, which the eager feminine mind, eager for improvement, will easily devise.

never knew how well myself And me could get along.

'I never try to cheat me I'm as truthful as can be. No matter what may come and go I'm on the square with me.

It's great to know yourself and have A pal that's all your own, o be such company for ycurself You're never left alone.

"You'll try to dodge the masses And you'll find a crowd's a joke. If you only treat yourself as well As you treat other folk.

"I've made a study of myself Compared me with a lot. And I've finally concluded I'm the best friend I've got.

"Just get together with yourself And trust yourself with you. And you'll be surprised how well yourself Will like you if you do."

-Author unknown.

. . .

Kitchen Comments

Mrs. E. Snyder, Dist. Pres., Women's Institute, Oxford Co., Ont. How often we hear women remark-ing that they would be able to accoming that they would be able to accom-plish so much more than they do if they had proper conveniences in their kitchens. I believe a kitchen can be made very convenient with very little expense if one is capable of managing expleme if one is capable of managing properly. The first thing I want in my kitch-en is plenty of light. And this is one of the cheapest, conveniences we can have, especially daylight. Some peohave, especially daylight. Some peo-ple claim that they darken their kitchen to keep out the files, but give me the light, sunny kitchen and I will use other methods to extinguish the fiv

It is necessary to have It is necessary to have a largo kitchen on the farm as usually there is mere or less hired help. The kitch-en should be provided with plenty of hard and soft water piped in from outside wells. I would not like water coming from a well underneath a Luilding.

A BOOM IN HOT WEATHER good sized refrigerator is very handy in a kitchen, especially if one has plenty cf ice. Some people prefer a dumb waiter. I do not care for one. (I like a waiter, but not dumb).

South Oxford who, strange to say, have married narrow-minded men. Those whe have Leen so unfortmate, however, should not judge allowed alike but should strike a medium and if they can possibly reform their hus-bands, they will find them conven-iences in their kitchens.

believe one way to keep men in good humor is to "feed the brute." If we do this they will not consider us as farm servants, but will be willing to allow us the egg money at least.

. . .

"If You Can't Smile"

"If You CART STMME" In the anteroom of a certain has-pital was once seen a notice posted in a conspicous place for the benaft of visitors, and it read something like this: "Don't speak a discurzaring word here; keep your sad looks for other places, and if you can't amile, don't go in!" What excellent advice for heapital visitors, and why should don't go mi' What excellent advice for hospital visitors, and why should it not be applied to other than those who visit such places? I have sometimes thought that if we had more ready smiles, more hearty langhs and everyday cheeri-ness in our homes there might be less need of hospital visitors. Give the little ones the bright smiles, fathers Give the little ones the bright smiles, fathers and mothers, though you may net al-ways feel like it; they turn to you has flowers to the smi, and we are failing sadly as parents if we allow them to grow up in a gloomy, fault-finding at-mosphere. A maughty child, when expecting punishment of some kind, in other a completely compared by is often completely conquered by seeing a sweet, forgiving smile on his mother's face, when a scolding or whipping would have cnly hardened him him. Suppose a phonographic record could, without our knowledge, be made of the exact words and tomes we used during just one day to these in the home, then, in the stillness of the night we could hear that record reproduced?

LIFE WORTH LIVING

The old people need the sunny smile and the cheery greeting; they have gotten where they feel, may be, in the way, not of much use, and the future has not the brightness for them that it used to have, but a little attenthat it used to have, but a little atten-tion paid them by someone younger, a little whoughtful kindness and the hopeful thought instilled into them that the best is yet to be, and that they, are still needed in the world, then the dark despondency vanishes and life seems once more worth the living.

About the children once more. a dumb waiter. I do not care for one. (I like a waiter, but not dumb). A large kitchen eabinet is a great teacher will find them better pupis labor saver as one can prepare all because of this, and they and we will their party for the oven with but little work. I like rather a plain listle work. I like rather a plain help to store their minds with can be be be be be be be be assily polished, (nct an ornament). In a much more profibile way than the sereclications may be to then; ontinually entry be be space more man that conting a store. The vor-man that conting a store. The vor-man that conting a store. The vor-man that conting a store of the store of the store is not a convenience in rank and he round good helpmate and chertin all who are node in a cood nourishing meal. I believe one way to keep men in good by a cneerrul habit of thought; or surely may be what we will in the respect. I believe that it is di-sunny, happy-hearted peeple who as loved the best, who most influence for good. The short and simp obtime. (15) for good. The short and sin obituary "She was always so pla ant" seems to me a beautiful and she who merited it lived a which we might well emulate. Mn C. S. S., Rural New Yorker.

January 16, 1913.

his terr Club a churches country were th Baptist when Su the Prelate, bu have go the cons easily ha On maki

one; also -940

SI

time

1