Montreal figures supplied to The Monetary Times by Messrs. Burnett & Co., St. Sacrament St., Montreal. Toronto quotations "and interest."

Nineteen hundred and fifteen looks like a good year for the Canadian cheese trade. At Ontario points last week record prices were scored for large lots of cheese, when 18 13-16 cents per pound was paid. There were bidders for more at the price. This price was nearly 7 cents per pound more than was paid a year ago. Large exports of cheese this spring for the army is responsible for the tight situation. While price recessions will be met, there is no reason to doubt that they will remain comparatively high. Fortunately pastures were two weeks in advance of the average year, this spring, and the flow of milk has increased in proportion.
