

Monetary Times

Trade Review and Insurance Chronicle of Canada

VOLUME 57
No. 15

TORONTO, OCTOBER 13, 1916

ESTABLISHED
1867

Life Insurance

There must be no tampering with the existing privileges contained in life insurance contracts, says a contributor, Page 24. In selecting married women as prospects, insurance should be limited to nominal size and made out in favor of dependent children, Page 20

Canadian Western Trade

United States manufacturers are watching for opportunities in Saskatchewan, Page 25. British Columbia business men want a customs officer at New York, Page 22. Advice as to securing settlers for the West, Page 26

Fire Rates Inquiry

Ontario commission of inquiry resumes its sittings. Instructive statement filed by the Canadian Fire Underwriters' Association. Commissioner is impressed with Michigan insurance act as being very satisfactory, Page 5

Royal Acquires Quebec Bank

Canada's minister of finance has approved merger of these two banks. Best interests of shareholders are served. Some interesting figures of this combination, Page 24B

The Week's Topics

How the sale of "baby" bonds to the small investor may be made successful, Page 9. Regulating fire insurance rates, Page 10. Need for sacrifice in times of war prosperity, Page 9. National business conference, Page 9. Western Canada's refunding scheme, Page 10

Empire's Resources

Dominions Royal Commission, now in Canada, is inquiring into natural resources, trade and legislation. Personnel of the commission and scope of its work. Three interim reports have been presented, Page 8

German Trade Losses

Militarism pays the price—Germany's losses of trade cannot be counterbalanced by closer economic ties with her allies—Austria-Hungary, Turkey and Bulgaria. For Britain and the Allies, the outlook is bright, Page 5

Bond Market

New British securities are popular, Page 26. Canada as an investment field, Page 24. The Monetary Times' weekly record of municipal financing and activities, Page 12

WEEKLY STATISTICAL RECORD—Pages 36, 38, 40, 42, 44.

DIVIDENDS AND NOTICES—Page 34.

DEBENTURES FOR SALE—Page 37.

EDITORIALS—Pages 9, 10.

Annual Subscription $3.00 - - Single copy 10 cents.