REAL SPORT FOR THE ANGLER

Those Anglers who love to prop primitive. their rod against a convenient stump and doze while their line dips unmolested in the placid water, will find no amusement in a vaca-tion at Lake Nipigon or surrounding region. The waters of Lake Nipigon, Nipigon River and Orient Bay abound with large finny beauties which warm the hearts of fishermen who find no satisfaction in landing a prize without a battle.

For the canoeist, too, Nipigon promises plenty of adventure. Lakes to cruise, with constantly changing scenery. Rock strewn rivers where the craft buoyantly rides the swift currents. There are rapids to shoot, taxing the dexterity of the most expert to guide the canoe through the maddened, boiling waters without a spill.

Nipigon Lodge is a luxurious lodge of rustic design on the shore of Orient Bay. Deep set amidst pine and cedar trees, it offers most comfortable quarters for a quiet pipe or game of cards before retiring.

Here it is that real sportsmen gather and discuss their chances of winning the coveted Nipigon Trophy which the Canadian National Rail-plete information is obtainable from any Canadian National Agent.

IRISH REPUBLICANS TURN OVER NEW LEAF

By J. H. Cox prrespondent, N. C. W. C.)

The release of Eamon De Valera and Austin Stack caused a sense of relief among persons of every shade of opinion in all parts of Ireland. It is now assured that political opposition in the southern portion of the country will be strictly the country will be strictly constitutional.

The Republican leaders, it is understood, have a constructive program which they intend to put before the people for the development of the country's resources and national sentiments. New groupings in Irish public life may soon be expected.

In the rank and file of the population the events since the signing of the Anglo-Irish Treaty have left no traces of bitterness. Citizens, irrespective of their personal views, are keenly desirous that a conciliatory and tolerant tone shall inspire public affairs.

Immediately on his liberation De Valera proceeded to the Republican headquarters at Suffolk Street, Oublin. Some minutes later he notored to his home in the suburbs, only to find that his wife and family had left for the west of Ireland a week previously. That night he slept in the house of Sear T. O'Kelly, T. D., a number of citizens with bared heads escorting him there. It is confidentially understood by N. C. W. C. Service that his next movement will be a visit to his family and to his constituency in County Clare.

Then he will return at once to political activities. Three elections for the Dail are pending, and the Republican chief will throw all his energies into these contests. Thus the new constitutional turn in Irish political action will be signalized.

Bishop Dignam was among the first to send De Valera a cordial message. Many persons of Free State sympathies did likewise.

down the long avenue of years. To the very threshold of death, possible in a minimum space of time, it is expected from the numerous inquiries received, that a number of extra trains will be necessary this year to transport the harvesters to the West. Canadian Pacific agents throughout Ontario have been fully instructed in the various matters pertaining to har-vesters and will gladly furnish full information regarding the departure of trains.

On August 22nd at 12.01 a. m. (midnight, August 21st) the first special train will leave Toronto, followed by one at 10.00 a. m. and others as required.

WHERE NATURE REIGNS SUPREME

To get away from the smoke and stifling heat of the City, to put on old clothes and live a vagabond's life in the great out of doors, there is no place quite so suitable as Timagami. Almost four million acres in extent, plentifully scat-tered with wonderfully cool, deep lakes, the whole area traced with a net work of rock-churned rivers or quiet shadowry brooks, Timagami is just the place to get back to the Canoeists can paddle hundreds of miles through ever - changing scenery without a single portage. The waters of Timagami are alive with speckled trout, black bass, while for the nature lover the number of moose, bear and mink to be seen allows ample opportunity to study wild life at close range.

There are permanent camps throughout the district for those who insist on comparative luxury, or if you wish to establish camp wherever you happen to be, you will find not a single "trespassing forbidden" sign in the whole region.
