NEW BRANCH.

Another Branch was organized on the 27th of February at Westport, County of Leeds, by District Deputy Wm. Brannan, assisted by Brothers O. K. F. and J. C. McEwen, of the Grand Council; B. C. McEwen, of Brockville Branch; and J. C. McEwen, of Kingston Branch, now parish priest of Westport. The number of charter members is twenty, and the prospect for the Branch is of the most promising character.

The officers elected are as follows: Spiritus Sanctus, Rev. P. A. Smith, President; J. C. McEwen, 1st Vice; John Mavell; 2nd Vice; J. Murphy; Treasurer; J. H. Martin; Recording Secretary; J. M. Miller; Assistant Secretary; Thos. McEwen; Financial Secretary; M. Kearney; Marshal; J. O'Brien; Grand Chaplain; J. D. Kelly; Chaplain; J. H. Whelan; T. Lynch; P. Donnelly; Trustees for two years, P. Donoghue and J. K. Kane.

After the work of the Branch had been completed, District Deputy Brannan and Vice-President Fraser gave the officers-elect thorough instruction as to their duties and the proper method of managing the Branch. The visiting brothers, who were present, were secured by Father Twomey and the Westport brothers. A neat little hall has been secured and will be used in a most thorough manner. The Branch meetings will be held on the 1st and 3rd Monday of each month.

Montreal Notes.

Lent has arrived, and the first duty of every Catholic is to comply with its Easter Communion. What a good example it would show if each Branch, in its own parish, had a practice of receiving in a body in its own parish! It would also do away with this lamentable custom of making their Easter duty until the last days of the Lenten season. What Branch will lead in this good work?

Poorly-attended meetings is the cry coming up from many Branches. If officers and members of Branches wish for their meetings, they should make it a point to open meetings at 8 o'clock sharp, confine themselves to what is strictly business, and do not speak too long on any one subject, and close the meeting on time. They will find by this means, increase of members, and much more interest taken in each meeting.

The Grand Deputies and Presidents of our City Branches on Sunday afternoon, at the Archbishop's Academy, with an address to which he replied in very feeling terms. Further particulars will be given in another issue.

St. Ann Church on Sunday evening last presented a pleasing sight to our C. M. B. A. members, who, at the invitation of the Rev. Father, attended the meeting. There was a large number of members from the various Branches, and the church was crowded. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Father, in a very effective manner. Remarks such as these bring the C. M. B. A. prominently before every family in the parish and are productive of much good. Understand St. Gabriel's Branch also holds a similar reunion in a short time.

A relief fund in connection with Branch 59 was organized on Monday evening, and starts with a good membership, an excellent list of officers, and is bound to be successful, as have all the other Branches of this Branch. They give a best of four dollars per week to each member, per cent. on all medicines used by members or their families, and if needed, the fund is called on to attend their families, 25 per cent. is allowed of regular charges and many other benevolent provisions. No doubt, in time the action of this Branch will be followed by all the other City Branches.

Resolutions of Condolence.

At the last regular meeting of Branch 91, Allison, it was moved by Bro. O'Callaghan, seconded by Bro. Cahill, and

Resolved, That we, the members of Branch 91 of the Catholic Mutual Benefit Association, do hereby place on record our profound sorrow on account of the death of Bro. Wm. O'Connor and heartily sympathize with his wife and family in their bereavement, and that a copy of this minute be engrossed and forwarded to the afflicted widow and do sincerely recommend her to the pious prayers of our brethren of the C. M. B. A.

Resolved, That we, while hoping to the will of God, extend our deepest feeling of sympathy to Bro. Zinger and family at the loss of him who was personally known to each of us during his sojourn here, and we might venture to say by all in Westwater as a man of the most kind disposition, and an affectionate parent a kind friend and a truly devoted Catholic.

Resolved, That a copy of this be inserted in the CATHOLIC RECORD and also in the C. M. B. A. Monthly.

Our Branch No. 92 was organized on the 15th of December, 1888, with seven members, and we have since then brought our membership up to high water mark, and at the present date. At our next regular meeting we will have five members to initiate and three new applicants. This shows that our Branch is going great work in a short time since it was organized.

O'Connor and heartily sympathize with his wife and family in their bereavement, and that a copy of this minute be engrossed and forwarded to the afflicted widow and do sincerely recommend her to the pious prayers of our brethren of the C. At the last regular meeting of Branch 76 the following resolutions of condolence were adopted:

Moved by Bro. John McCarron seconded by Bro. Chas. Ridge.

Resolved, That with loving and submission to the will of our heavenly Father and deeply deploring the death of so worthy a Brother, we hereby extend to Bro. M. L.

Children to the number of 42,500 attend the Catholic parochial schools of Chicago, which gives one child from every two families in the city. This creditable showing proves the earnestness of the Catholics in giving a religious education to their children. In Wisconsin 31,000 children are enrolled on the books of the 251 Catholic schools in the State.

Five young women of high caste recently received the white veil at the Convent of the Immaculate Heart of Mary in Madras, India, at the hands of the Archbishop of that see. The Order was established in Pondicherry about fifty years ago by the late Father Dupuis, a priest of the Foreign Missions. It is a teaching Order and counts now about fifteen or sixteen branch houses in the extensive Archdiocese of Pondicherry. A branch house was established in Madras by the late lamented Dr. S. Fennelly in 1876 for the education of native girls. The schools conducted by the Order are largely attended by children of all castes and religions.

Father Conroy, writing to a friend in Europe, describes the condition of Father Damien, the heroic priest, who devoted himself to the care of the lepers at Molokai, and so became a victim of the loathsome disease from which he is now at the point of death. Father Conroy, who voluntarily devoted himself to the same work as Father Damien's assistant, says: "The leprosy is taking its course with him; by turns it seizes his eyes, his nose, throat, hands, and hangs around his neck. The poor Father has suffered much. He is entirely digitured; his voice is almost gone. If you could see him as I do, in his little room, lying in his bed on the floor, the tears would start to your eyes at the thought that he who has done so much for the afflicted should be brought to so dreadful a condition, and that so little can be done for his relief. Happily, a good Father has still the use of his hands."

Propagandist Fulton is up to his ears in trouble with the colored people, whom he recently denounced roundly as fools unfit for liberty because some of them have chosen to become Catholics. Mr. Fulton's idea of liberty is peculiar, but he will make few converts to it among the intelligent and self-respecting colored people. A man who has wrung his freedom from the sharp claws of a tiger is not going to be scared by the baying of a dog.

A Canadian correspondent of the New York Herald says the Protestants of Canada "are preparing for civil war" because the Quebec Legislature awarded indemnity for Jesuit property that had been seized early in the century. The average Protestant who goes mad at the sight of any public recognition of the civil rights of Catholics is becoming an absurd nuisance. He must learn that in the nineteenth century that he does not own the earth, that other people have rights as well as he, and that if he cannot be tolerant he really must learn to be polite.

Here is the public protest of an English Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Dr. Bagshaw, of Nottingham—who was boycotted last year, it will be remembered, by English Tory Catholics for his sympathy with Irish Nationalism—against the infamous treatment of William O'Brien, M. P. "I am heartily glad to hear that it is proposed to take prompt and emphatic action in Nottingham to protest against the shameful treatment of Mr. William O'Brien, M. P., in Clonmel Prison. I shall be happy to take whatever part I can in promoting such action. Mr. O'Brien is a statesman of a pure and noble character. His cause is a righteous cause, and has the support of four fifths of his fellow-countrymen, and of the greater part of the inhabitants of Great Britain. To treat such a man for such a cause as a felon, and to do him to death by a brutal usage, because he will not submit to the degradation of a felon, is a shocking crime, a deadly insult to the whole Tory Government, and unless protested against, a stain upon our nation."

The Spanish empire is the best Asiatic power to adopt constitutional government. There will be two houses of Parliament, one elected by the people, the other composed of the hereditary Lords. The new constitution was proclaimed on the 11th inst. and it will come into practical operation next year. All men aged twenty, five years, and paying $25 annual taxes, will possess voting, legislative, and electoral of the finances under certain limitations.

The New York Herald has begun the publication of an edition of that journal in London, England. It is usual with the Herald's ventures to succeed, and this one will probably be no exception to the rule.

The people of New Zealand are in complete sympathy with the Americans, regarding the Samoan question, and they say that this will continue to be the case no matter what course England may take in the matter.

Great difficulty is experienced in finding some one who will accept the episcopate of the Protestant diocese of Michigan, vacant by the death of Bishop Harris. It was offered to Rev. Dr. Satterlee of New York, but was declined.

It is probable that four new States will be admitted to the Union during the present session of Congress, as both parties seem to have agreed upon this. The new States will be North and South Dakota, Montana and Washington. The last State admitted was Colorado in 1876.

Mrs. Colonel Dis Debar, the Spiritualist fraud, has declared that the spirits have commanded her to marry her husband. It is not certain whether Mr. Debar will give his consent, but his friends are watching him closely to prevent him from acting on the spiritual command, if possible.

A dreadful disaster occurred at Plymouth, Pa., on 25th ult., by which ten girls and one man were killed. The factory of John Powell manufactures squibs with which the miners loosen coal in the mines. In it were employed 184 girls from twelve to twenty years of age, and a number of men. While most of the girls were at home at dinner two explosions of powder took place which buried in the ruins those that had remained in the building with the result mentioned above. The whole city is plunged into gloom by the occurrence.

On the death of Emilio Castelar's elder, the Queen Regent of Spain sent by the President of the Council a most sympathetic message, which was the more grateful both on account of the dignity of the messenger, and of Signor Castelar's Republicanism. The news of the death reached the Queen while the birthday festivities in honor of the young king were going on, and while the guests were being received by the great banquet. She said to the President of the Council: "Go and tell M. Castelar that I forget that he is the head of the Republican party; that I only see in him a National glory, a great orator, an artist who has no peer, and
