"I cannot do it," said George firmly.

A few more suns shall set O'er these dark hills of time. And we shall be where suns are not, A far serener clime; Then, O my Lord, prepare My soul for that blest day : O wash me in thy precious blood And take my sins away.

A few more storms shall beat On this wild rocky shore. And we shall be where tempests cease. And surges swell no more; Then, O my Lord, prepare My soul for that calm day O wash me in thy precious blood. And take my sins away.

A few more struggles here, A few more partings o'er, A few more toils, a few more tear And we shall weep no more, Then, O my Lord, prepare My soul for that bright day; O wash me in thy precious blood And take my sins away. -Benar.

pray for your sight."" Said he : "I told them that he had already cured my eyes. It was then too dark for them to see, but as soon as a light was struck all saw that my eyes were perfectly cured, and they stay cured."

Now here is a miracle of mercy in answer to the prayer of faith. Jesus, while upon earth, did many things for poor suffering humanity. I judge a large majority of his miracles were of this kind.

The people looked in wonder at his almighty power in feeding the multitudes; while the woman of Canaan, almost alone, received his attention and blessing when she fell at his feet and prayed, "Lord, help me."

I refer to the above case to show the efficacy of prayer, and I think there is very much in store for us if we will but ask, in faith, for those blessings which are both spiritual and temporal.

When I taught a district school, said he, adopted as a principle to give as few rules to my scholars as possible. I had, however, one standing rule, which was, "Strive, under all circumstances to do right;" and the text of right, under all circumstances, was the goiden rule, "All things whatsoever ye would have that men should do unto you, do ye even so unto them."

If an offense was committed, it was my invariable practise to ask, "Was it right ?" "Was it as you would be done by ?"

GOD'S LOVE

There's a wideness in God's mercy, Like the wideness of the sea; There's a kindness in his justice Which is more than liberty.

There is no place where earth's sorrows Are more felt than up in heaven ; There is no place whare earth's failings Have such kindly judgment given.

There is grace enough for thousands Of new worlds as great as this; There is room for fresh creations In that upper world of bliss

For the love of God is broader Than the measure of man's mind ; And the heart of the Eterna! Is most wonderfully kind
