A church parade will be held at the camp grounds of the 4th Pioneer Battalion, on Sunday morning, June 4, at 9 o'clock. The public are cordially invited to attend.

At the meeting of the quarterly official board of the Methodist Church, held on Monday evening, a unanimous and very heartily invitation to remain for another year, was extended to Mr. Weddall, who has been the pastor for the past three years.

Two McLaughlin-Buick five passenger touring cars arrived here last Saturday, and are fine looking models. Mr. M. N.
Cockburn, K. C., is the owner of one, and Mr. Albert Denley the other. Mr. Denley will use his car in connection with his livery.

The play "Jack's Wife" was presented to a large audience in the Andrales Hall, on Thursday evening, by Calais, Milltown, and St. Stephen talent, under the direction of Mr. Theodore H. Bird, in aid of the Hospital Fund. At the close a social dance was participated in by many of those who were present at the show.

The bye-election held in Westmorland county, on Tuesday, resulted in the election of Dr. E. A. Smith, the opposition candidate over P. G. Mahoney, who had been selected to succeed the Hon. John Morrissey as Minister of Public Works in the provincial cabinet.

The 4th Pioneer Battalion held a church parade last Sunday morning, when the followers of the different denominations went to their respective churches, namely, Methodist, Baptist, Roman Catholic, Church of England, and Presbyterian.

On Monday Capt. Lumb, Paymaster, and Lieuts. Davies, Pauson, and Webber, arrived at the camp with 38 men. On Tuesday Lieut. Goodchild arrived with a detachment of 65 men from Ontario. A draft of 21 men from the 219th Highland Battalion, Halifax, also arrived on Tuesday.

The members of the Battalion were marched to the Bank of Nova Scotia, on Thursday morning, where they received their pay.

The water supply for the camp is about completed. Shower baths for the use of N. C. O's and men are being installed, which will add greatly to the comfort of the Battalion, which numbers at present nearly 600 men.

A draft of twenty-one men from the 219th Highland Battalion, Halifax, passed through the city to-day on the way to St.
Andrews to the 4th Pioneer Battalion at their summer camp there. The men evidently were chosen with particular attention to their fitness for this battalion and were a fine sturdy looking lot of men.
Their Highland bonnets attracted considerable attention in St. John.—Times and Star, May 24.

THE OLD GARDEN

I know a sweet old garden,
Closed in by sheltering walls,
Where the sunlight lingers lovingly
And the twilight softly falls.

A garden, quaint and peaceful,
Where I lay aside all care,
A very Paradise it seems
Of rest and sweetness rare.

In spring the garden wakens,
And from beneath their shading leaves,
The violets scatter perfume
On every passing breeze.

And in one sunny corner,
All decked with green and gold,
A wealth of yellow beauties
Their leaves and cups unfold.

Then stately lily, lovely rose,
Bend their gracious heads
To the tender little seedlings
As they creep from earthy beds.

Whilst bursting bud and blossom,
When sunbeams chase the gloom,
Bring graceful, clinging, lowly things
And gorgeous glorious bloom.

Dear garden filled with memories,
This heritage of ours—
Are links that bind the passing years,
Those years so full to me.

The flowers look up and smile and nod,
As a soft wind whisp'ers by,
And they seem to say "Be happy, Overhead is God's blue sky."

O sweetest, fairest flowers,
Thy mission is to cheer Saddened hearts and hungry souls,
And make life's way less drear.

How cold and dark the earth would be—
This heritage of ours—
Without God's blessed sunshine,
And his precious gift, the flowers.

Julia Bebian

WHAT PRICE DO YOU PAY FOR TEA?

This is very important on account of changed conditions.

Conditions in the tea markets of the world have changed considerably since the war. On account of Russia prohibiting the sale of vodka and France putting the ban on Absinthe, these countries have become larger consumers of tea. In fact, France and other countries have followed the English custom of serving tea to the troops instead of coffee, and this takes an enormous supply of tea.

These largely increased demands for tea would be sufficient in themselves to have caused a rise in tea values. But, in addition, ocean freight rates are three times normal and insurance rates are very high, and over eighteen million pounds of tea have been lost on vessels which were sunk by German cruisers and submarines since war began.

The foregoing facts explain why tea is higher in price before here. If you are still paying the same price for tea as you were eight months or so ago you are getting a lower grade than the tea you formerly used. For example, if you are paying 40 cents a pound you are getting the quality that sold at 30 cents a year ago.

The old 40 cent quality is now selling at 50 cents—in fact, has been selling at this price for months. If anyone has not been enjoying their tea lately they will no doubt find that they have not been getting the same grade or label, consequently it has not tasted so good. The flavor wasn't so full or so rich.

But tea at 50, 60 and 70 cents a pound is not dear. In fact, it is the cheapest hot drink obtainable when you consider the great number of cups of tea a pound will make. At 50 cents a pound the cost per cup is only one-fifth of a cent, so small that it is hardly worth considering.

There are more people enjoying tea today than ever before, as what other beverage will give so much real enjoyment at so small a cost. And while tea sells at anywhere near its present moderate prices there is no reason for not enjoying our due share of this delightful beverage.
