EL PASO, Tex., Feb. 29.-Patrick F. Garrett, known the continent over as the "gun fighter" who in 1880 killed the notorious outlaw "Billy the Kid" was shot and killed today by J. Wayne Brazle, a youth near Las Cruces, N. H. in a dispute over a ranch lease. At an inquest this afternoon a cor oner at Las Cruces returned a verdict that Patrick Garrett came to his death as the result of wounds inflicted by a revolver in the hands of J. Wayne The sole witness to the killing Carl Adamson told the story of the shooting saying that Brazle threatened Garrett. Brazle declared that the shooting was in self defense but made no further statement. Garrett had been on a visit to one of his ranches near Las Cruces, and of a German aerial fleet during the
