LATEST PHASE OF THE HOME RULE

Been Defined.

LONDON, May 16 .- The Daily Telephaph on semi-official authority states that the Home Rule Amending Bill will be more restricted in its scope than was at first anticipated CEALED TENDERS, addressed to the and that no provision will be made or the excluded areas in Ulster until the areas are defined, which cannot be determined until the counties exer-

June 1st, 1914, for the construction of the aforesaid building.

Plans, specifications and form of contract can be seen and forms of tender obtained at the office of Mr. Thos. A. Hastings. Clerk of Works. Postal Station "F," Yonge Street, Toronto, on application to the caretaker of Post Office, Listowel, Ont., and at this Department.

Persns tendering are notified that tenders will not be considered unless made on the printed forms supplied, and signed with their actual signatures, stating their occupations and places of residence. In the case of firms, the actual signature, the nature of the occupation, and place of residence of each member of the firm must be given.

Each tender must be accompanied by an accepted cheque on a chartered bank, payable to the order of the Honorable the Minister of Public Works, equal to ten per cent. (10 p.c.) of the amount of the tender which will be forfeited if the person tendering decline to enter into a contract when called upon to do so, or fail to complete the work contracted for. If the tender be not accepted the cheque will be returned.

The Department does not bind itself to accent the lowest or any tender.

erg's testimony definitely connecting was permitted to say merely that she fered, which sold at the regular prices.

Sensational eatures.

Her testimony was of such compelling interest that it eclipsed other pound. There were no changes in the sensational features of to-day's de-prices of meat velopments—that Plitt, Becker's spy, had turned State's evidence, and will Radish speak against his former master on Monday; that the State, according to the District Attorney, established out f the mouths of decent men that Becker was in communication with Rose immediately before and immedately after the murder, and that Becker, although he knew early on the morning of the second day after he murder that Rose was wanted for the murder, said nothing, did nothing, towards Rose's arrest.

It is difficult to picture in rigid words the scene as "Leftie Louie's" widow dropped her words into the utter silence of the court room. Every man of the jury bent toward her, Justice Seabury missed no syllable of her story. Becker, from whatever emotion, it may have been simple astonishment, gripped the table in front of him.. His lawyers, what time they were not objecting, sat with so-Rose Corroborated.

Mrs. Rosenberg's testimony occu-tied less than half an hour of the time of the court. Previously and subsequently the District Attorney essayed to prove by unobjectionable witnesses, men and women, the essential statements in Jack Rose's testimony, practically all of Rose's statements in fact, save those referring to Becker's direct connection with "Lefty Louie's" band. That had been brought out by Shapiro, and finally by Lillian Rosenberg.

Distribution of Rifles in Ulster.
LONDON, May 16—A Belfast despatch to the Daily Chronicle states on reliable authority that in any parts of North Ireland elaborate arrangements are being made for the distribution amongst selected members of the volunteer forces of rifles and ammunition recently imported. Intimation has been made that members are making enquiries regarding the possible consequences of harboring illicit weapons. The farmers have not objected to drilling, but actual warlike preparations seem to have caused serious alarm,
