

Doctors Recommend Good Ice Cream

There's nothing better for children or grown-ups than rich milk or cream. But so many people do not care for it, that doctors recommend it in the form of ice cream. The best and purest is none too good, and that's why you should eat —made in a model plant, from the purest thick pasteurized cream supplied by regularly and carefully inspected dairy herds. Therefore there is no danger of getting cream from tuberculous cows.

Brant Ice Cream

Brant Ice Cream is delicious by itself, and combined with fruits, preserves, nuts, etc., it forms many dainty and refreshing desserts.

When you serve Brant Ice Cream—in any form—you are sure of pleasing your guests, your family and yourself.

Sold in bulk or in bricks.
Order some from your Dealer to-day (a pint is enough to try) and you'll always use it.

N.B.—Brant Ice Cream bricks are carefully packed in improved sanitary cartons.

Music and Drama

At the Brant.

A good holiday programme was presented to a capacity house at both afternoon and evening performances of the Brant theatre yesterday. The eighth episode of the Million Dollar Mystery created as is usual intense interest and other photo plays were equally attractive.

The Petit Family in a pantomimic, acrobatic act perform some adept gyrations and cause great amusement with their quaint mannerisms. Many of their feats bear the hallmark of originality. Much applause was theirs.

Van Hoff scored decidedly with his mimic act. Very humorous are some of his personations and he bowed to repeated encores.

Both and Villareal present a type of refined comedy which is of the early style. Garbed as two portly dames they cause merriment, galore and are an entertaining couple.

Women's Institute

Onondaga Women's Institute.

The September meeting of the Onondaga Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. R. McMillan on Sept. 2nd, with a good attendance, and the president, Mrs. M. N. Simpson presiding. The roll call was answered with pickle recipes. An appeal was read from Mr. Puknam asking the Institute to assist in the work of the Red Cross Society in supplying articles for the war. As a result the ladies are holding a rally to make pillows. The meeting opened with "O Canada." Mrs. Vansickle then gave a report of the work done toward the hospital ship, $67.75 being collected. Two most interesting papers were given by the Misses Hazel Matthews and Evelyn Tait on "Spices and Sugar." Mrs. H. Tawes gave a splendid paper on the training of girls in the home, after which a discussion was held on the work done toward the hospital ship. A vocal solo by Mrs. Outboud and a piano solo by Miss Burrill were much appreciated. The meeting closed with the National Anthem. Owing to the fall fairs the next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. Edwards on Sept. 30, instead of Oct. 7.

RUSSIANS PROGRESS. PARIS, Sept. 8 (2.05 p.m.).—According to reliable advices which have reached here, Russian cavalrymen are now upon the crests of the Carpathian Mountains.

WARSHIPS ACTIVE. MANILA, Sept. 8.—Steamships and other vessels arriving here make reports indicating that Philippine waters are being constantly patrolled by British, French, Russian and Japanese warships to intercept German merchantmen. The Hampshire, in west of Luzon, a Russian cruiser with seven destroyers is patrolling to the north, while the French armored cruisers Kieper and Duplex are to the southward and the Japanese warships are off San Bernardino.

KITCHEN—DUFFIE NUPITAL EVENT BRILLIANT AFFAIR

(Jamestown Morning Post)

The first of the early fall society weddings took place last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Duffie of 515 Washington Street, when their daughter, Doree Dorothy Duffie, was united in marriage with John Franklin Kitchen of Brantford, Ontario, Canada. The full Episcopal ring service was read at 8 o'clock by Rev. Charles T. Shaw, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church.

Guests were received by host and hostess assisted by Mrs. Henry Wells Odell, Mrs. Allen Curtis, Mrs. George E. Hurlbert, Mrs. William Bealer, Mrs. G. Godard, Mrs. L. L. Duffie, Mrs. W. F. Stitt and Miss Grace Barrows with W. G. Eckman, W. A. Gokney and D. A. Curtis acting as masters of ceremonies.

Throughout the home a color effect of pink and blue was artistically maintained and a profusion of pink gladiolas and roses were harmoniously touched by glimpses of blue, with nature's green as a background. Baskets were everywhere in evidence in the design of the floral scheme being primarily "basket decoration" all under supervision of B. A. Bartlett. The reception room in which the ceremony took place was particularly effective. Pink and blue festoons were seen upon mantelpieces and chandeliers, with flowers everywhere visible. Before a large French window a drape of pastel green velours was arranged as a "fondo," for masses of palms. On either side stood white pedestals, bearing huge baskets of pink roses, with pink and blue garnishings. Before this bower the bride party stood during the wedding ceremony.

Shortly before 8 o'clock when practically all of the large number of guests had assembled, Irving C. Black, of Cleveland, rendered a vocal solo, "When Song is Sweet," by Gertrude Sans Sauci. The accompaniment at piano was given by Miss Mabel Heath Following this, the Lohengrin Wedding March was played by Brant's Orchestra, and the wedding party appeared in the following order. Descending the staircase, the railing of which was grained with green, came the four ribbon maids, Miss Louie Kitchen, a sister of the bridegroom, Miss Ma Belle Alton, Miss Gertrude Crooks and Miss Mildred Barnhart. As they marked the ribbon aisle, the minister, Rev. Charles T. Shaw, appeared, followed by the bridegroom, and his best man, John Noble, Next came the page, Ralph Duffie Eckman, a nephew of the bride, bearing upon the white satin cushion the wedding ring. The maid of honor, Miss Fleda, preceded her, the bride being met by her father who gave her in marriage. After the bride party had assumed their respective positions in the room the orchestra rendered Liszt's "Love's Dream," the strains of which were softly continued during the ceremony.

Following the marriage service the bride party took their places among their guests, the Mendelssohn Wedding March being the finale of the ceremony.

The bride was exquisitely gowned in white tulle with a train, and her veil, worn a la Juliet, was held by orange blossoms. Her only ornament was a necklace of gold, with pendant of pearls and pearls. The gift of the bridegroom, she carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor wore a chic gown of pink crepe de chine over pink tulle with court train en Grecque. A jacket of silk lace with basque girle of light blue chiffon completed the costume.

50 of pink roses tied in light blue tulle was carried. The bride's mother, Mrs. Duffie, wore satin de l'or, entraine, the gold color being heightened by a beaded tunic of silver, corsage bouquet of lavender and pink sweet peas, Mrs. Kitchen, mother of the groom, appeared in an elegant gown of black satin en train. Ribbon bearers and page were all costumed in white, the young girls wearing large, shoddy bows of pink and blue tulle, butterfly design, with bouquets of pink roses suspended from the arm.

A reception followed the wedding ceremony after which the guests adjourned through a canopied entrance to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Odell, where an elaborate wedding supper was served under direction of Miss Isadore Allen. Gay colored Japanese lanterns prettily toned the electric lights, and punch was served upon the veranda. The reception room was made brilliant by many pink roses, the centre being occupied by the bride table. An enormous gold basket of pink roses and flowers held graceful streamers of pink and blue tulle. Gold candelabra were in use bearing pink candles, and each guest received a tiny blue basket with pink tulle rosette, containing wedding cake. Place cards showed dainty baskets of lily of the valley. The adjoining rooms and verandas were decorated in pink and blue, pink gladiolas being prominent, and small tables accommodated the remaining guests.

The gifts received by Mr. and Mrs. Kitchen were manifold, and included generous offerings from a host of both American and Canadian friends. Many gifts from the latter are awaiting the bride and bridegroom at their home in Brantford, Ontario. Among the special remembrances were a complete dinner set of Haviland from the father and mother of the bride, a full silver tea service from the mother of the bridegroom, and a chest of silver from other relatives. The maid of honor was remembered by the bride with a lovely necklace with a diamond pendant, while the groom chose for his best man a choice scarf pin of pearls.

Mrs. Kitchen as the daughter of one of Jamestown's prominent merchants has attained a wide acquaintance. She was a student in the High School, and her musical success has been pronounced. She has studied at the Jamestown Conservatory of Music where her talent was at once recognized. Both in her church and social affiliations she has achieved highly and her winning manner and pronounced amiability make her an ever welcome presence. Mr. Kitchen, coming to "the Star" from Canada, has as sufficient testimony to his business ability. While American friends will regret the departure of Mrs. Kitchen for a Canadian home, they will rejoice that she goes with such an auspicious future.

Mr. and Mrs. Kitchen left last night for an extended wedding trip to include the Hudson, New York, Washington, D. C., Philadelphia and Washington. They will then take up their residence in Brantford, Ontario, where a home complete in all its furnishings and appointments awaits them.

Out of town guests at the wedding included Mrs. J. M. Kitchen and Miss Louie Kitchen of Brantford, Ontario, mother and sister of the groom; John Noble, Brantford, Ont., Mrs. William P. Ellsworth of London, Ont., an aunt of the bride; Mrs. L. L. Duffie of Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. C. C. Black and Fred A. Foyle of Cleveland; Miss Mildred Barnhart and Miss Gertrude Crooks of Warren, and Mrs. Godard, Houston, Tex.

A MASK BATTLE

LONDON, Sept. 8.—4.35 a.m.—A despatch to The Daily Mail from Mantes, 30 miles northeast of Paris, says:

The Battle of Criel, fought on Wednesday an ensuing day, was intended to mask the German movement to break through the line of French forces.

The German forces ranged northeasterly through Rheims.

"I myself was a witness of the continual pouring eastwards and northwards of reinforcements to build up and strengthen the rampart of the allies that was to check the German torrent. It became clear, I suppose, to the German general staff, that just when they were within receipt of their objective, Paris, the strength opposed to theirs was more than they could penetrate within any period which would suit the solving, in addition of the Russian problem. They therefore wheeled suddenly as though in desperation in an effort to destroy at first that part of the French strength."

STEAMER TAKEN.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—A despatch to The Telegraph from Brest says that the ship Portuna, loaded with coffee from the Antilles, has been brought into port. Six hundred and fifty Germans and Austrians who were taken from the liner Nieuw Amsterdam, according to the same despatch have been interned in the forts at Brest and Crozon.

The steamer Atlas has been towed into Brest.

A city regiment is to be organized for Berlin, Ont., the City Band being included.

RUSSIANS ARRIVE IN BELGIUM

LONDON, Sept. 8, 1 p.m.—A Russian army said to numbered 250,000 men is, according to the Rome Tribune, in France.

The Tribune usually is considered to be well informed regarding Russian movements. Official confirmation of the report is refused at the press bureau.

Experts here are of the opinion that the Germans who heretofore have been the outflankers are in danger of being outflanked and of being compelled to accept a frontal attack with the allies who now are on the offensive. This tactical struggle in which the combatants are killed in millions is likely to ebb and flow for a week before a decisive result is reached.

Great strategical importance is attached to the Russian capture of the fortress of Nicolaeff in Austrian Galicia. It is situated at the junction of railroads and has strong bow shaped fortifications and entrenchments on both banks of the River Dniester to protect the railroad bridges. The population of this place is largely Polish. It includes 4,000 Jews and a garrison of approximately 10,000 men.

The news has been received here that the King of Tonga Islands in the Southern Pacific Islands, has declared his neutrality. The Tonga Islands were in danger of starvation, as their food supply from New Zealand was cut off until a ship was sent to the relief of the natives. The ship gave the king his first news of the war and the monarch proclaimed his neutrality.

TRENCHING PARIS IN PARIS, Sept. 8.—Several thousand reservists have been engaged since the outbreak of the war in putting the outer defences of the entrenched camp in shape to resist a possible siege by the Germans. The military governor has now decided to hasten the work and yesterday 5,000 squads and given blankets so that they can sleep on the spot. They have been sent to the outer trenches.

CANADIANS ARRIVE PARIS, Sept. 8.—12.30 p.m.—According to information received at Nantes last Sunday, the French Steamer Caroline, with 750 French Canadians on board, has arrived at St. Nazaire. The Caroline left Montreal and Quebec, August 19.

THIS IS GOOD NEWS ROME, Sept. 8, via London, 12.45 p.m.—According to the Rome Tribune, there is in France today a total of 250,000 Russian troops. This newspaper attributes Emperor William's presence at Metz to this concentration of the Russians.

CIVILIANS WILL SHOOT SATURDAY AT THE RANGES

Sixty Names Were Enrolled Last Night at Enthusiastic Meeting.

Enthusiasm ran high at the second meeting of the Civilian Rifle Club, which was held last night in the Collegiate Institute, when the principal business was the signing of the service Roll. In all sixty six names were subscribed to the list last night, and many more are expected as some who have already signed before, were out of the town, owing to the holiday. Temporarily those enlisted were divided and made up into four sections and it is intended to have the first target practice on Saturday. This much was settled last night.

The ceremony of swearing in was performed by Normand Andrews and witnessed by Sam Seago, while Capt. T. Harry Jones presided.

There would be about 150 present and they heard addresses upon the rifle, which were of a technical character, by the Captain and Instructor Stevens. Treasurer Cornelius also gave a brief discourse from his former experience and a thorough insight into the component parts of the Ross rifle was given.

Arrangements are under way for use of the Collegiate ranges on Saturday and it is likely that there the first target practice will take place.

The unanimity of the gathering spoke well for the future success of the newly formed Rifle Club.
