so Declared by the Jury, and He'Will

The trial of Charles S. Luckey for the murder of his sister opened at Brockville on Tuesday last and lasted until Friday evening. The evider nain was a repetition of that given at the former trial. The chief new evidence was given by J. A. Whiting, the old man who is reported to have said he saw Miss Luckey killed but went to the States without telling of it. He was put in the witness box and proved rather an unsatisfactory witness, and being 88 years of age and very he was a hard witness to He said he had when near manage. He said he had when near the Luckey place seen a man strike a woman. He had a knife, but witness could not say whether he had used it The woman was also being lragged about by the hair of the head.
Luckey took advantage of the privi loge granted by the new criminal loge, and voluntarily entered the wit are box. According to his story, he pent the day in the vicinity of his

Although neither team scored a point, the game was well contested and our boys proved themselves more than a match for their opponents, who in the first half of the game played entirely on the defensive. Matheson and Blanchard were the stars of the Gananoque team, the heavy kicking of the latter saving his goal a number of times, while the former's skilful play frequently brought the ball to the Seeley's Bay end of the field. But
