Welcome Meeting.

SMILES AND TEARS, GREET THE WHITE RIBBON CHIEF, FRANCIS E. WILLARD.

Dear Union Signal—A spacious church adorned under Mme. Demorest's

How they cheered; how lowly they saluted, in their usual fashion, the chief.

How was she dressed? I don't know, I only saw she was there, restored to health,

I saw too, that a learned title had not changed her womanly gentleness.

FRANCIS E. WILLARD, LL. D.

It was several minutes before Mrs Mary E. Burt, president of New York

After prayer by Dr MacArthur, the pastor of the church, Mrs Burt set the key for the evening tribute in her eloquent though brief address.

After Thirty Years.

Allen Stewart, of Springton, suffers all this time—At last Confined to Bed—Story of His Happy Release from Pain.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I. July 9—Allen Stewart of Springton, near here,

After thirty years he has had kidney disease and gravel. Hundreds of dollars spent on doctors and medicine failed to cure him.

He had to take to his bed, and everybody considered his case a hopeless one.

He heard of Dodd's Kidney Pills and began using them. He says he noticed an improvement from the first, and he was cured.

Canada has one million miles of unexplored territory.

LIFE ON A RAILWAY.

The Experience of a Grand Trunk Employee.

Fell ill From Exposure—Pronounced Incurable and Paid the Total Disability Insurance Allowed by the Company—Once More on the Road to Health—His tale How it Came About.

During the past few weeks a fruitful subject of conversation among the people at Deseronto Junction has been the wonderful recovery of Mr William Henry Wager, who has been locked upon as a hopeless invalid.

That courteous official having assured the reporter that he would find the case one of more than ordinary interest, kindly pointed out the nearest route to Mr Wager's residence.

Mr Wager was a member of the Grand Trunk Insurance and Provident Society and during his illness received the usual pecuniary allowance given for a certain number of weeks to sick members.

He returned home greatly dejected, and the insurance society paid him the whole amount granted to its members in cases of total disability.

Scraps for Odd Moments.

In carrying a gun the great point is to point the muzzle the other way.

Minard's Liniment Cures Colds, etc. No, thank you, said the elephant to the express-man; I carry my own trunk.

Minard's Liniment Cures Diphtheria. Garfield Tea cures sick-headache.

Most of our misfortunes are more supportable than the comments of our friends upon them.

A man spends most of his time when around home in wondering where the women folks have "hid" the things he wants.

Minard's Liniment Cures Diarrhoea. The oven-knit, says a fashion journal, is an acknowledged fact; but can women afford to have both an oven-knit and sleeves?

Garfield Tea is sold by all druggists. Wilson says the armless freak who plays the piano with his feet comes nearer having music in his soul than any man he has yet heard of.

"Where do we find the most miserable man?" yelled the temperance orator. "At home nursing the baby," cried a voice in the audience.

For the complexion use Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It brings blooming health to weak cheeks.

After the football is over, After the field is clear, Straighten my nose and shoulder Help me to find my ear.

Equally safe for old or young, Ayer's Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood from all impurities.

What did Waite say that mortally offended Miss Fithave? Why, just after her fruitless visit to Europe he had the temerity to allude to her as a peevish creature.

Whiskers that are prematurely gray or faded should be colored to prevent the look of age, and Buchingham's Dye excels all others in coloring brown or black.

The meek men inherit the earth if, which they never could get it any other way.

Herr Meyer, I suppose you understand that everyone was to bring along something to the picnic. What have you brought? Herr Meyer—My two boys, as you see.

If you do not know how good a remedy Garfield Tea really is for constipation and sick headache, send a postal card to D. Deseronto, Co., 271 Queen Street, East, Toronto, for a free, trial package.

The sky is so blue at this season of the year that the earth grows green with jealousy.

Miranda has accepted that young man who stutters so much. Yes, Her tender heart led her to do it. How is that? When he addressed her in broken accents, she couldn't resist him.

A Member of the Ontario Board of Health says: "I have prescribed Scott's Emulsion in Consumption and even when the digestive powers were weak it has followed by good results." H. P. ZEMMANS, B. M. D.

Young Jefferson—You look sweet enough to kiss in that dress. Elaine—I have several more just like it.

Ha, ha, he roared Mr Nappo, as he looked his baby in the eye. What are you laughing at I asked Mrs Nappo. At the bright things that baby would say if he could only talk, said Nappo.

At no time is man sicker from attacks of such painful and dangerous disorders of the stomach as Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Cramps, Diarrhoea, and Dysentery; but these complaints are particularly common during the heated term, when it is doubly dangerous to neglect them.

There is one thing to be said in praise of the dou-hout, and that is that the yeast in its center will not distress the weakest stomach.

Captain to the man at the wheel—Another pointer-a port, quarter-master. Lady-passenger—Good gracious, that's the second pint of port, he has called for, within a few minutes. How those captain's drink.

I WAS CURED of Bronchitis and Asthma by MINARD'S LINIMENT. Lot 5, P. E. I. Mrs A. LAVINSTRONE.
