

Gleaned by the Way.
It's hard, said Uncle Eben, to be entirely idle. A man that won't work generally uses up a heap of energy dotting 'round and gettin' in de way. You attended the lecture last night? 'Yes.' 'What did the lecturer talk about? He didn't say.'

Piles Make Life Wretched.
It is a mistake to imagine that the effects of piles are local, for, as a matter of fact, they sap the vitality of mind and body and slowly lead to the ruin of health. Dr. Chase's Ointment brings almost instant relief from the burning, stinging sensations of piles, and is a thorough and positive cure for every form of this wretched, torturing, and obnoxious, stubborn disease.

Ill Temper from a Bad Liver.
Carlyle justly defines the ill-temper which made him a monster in the eyes of the world, to a bad liver. Nothing makes one feel more miserable or more gloomy and discouraged than liver complaint and consequent biliousness and dyspepsia and nothing so promptly and thoroughly sets the liver right and overcomes these ailments as Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, the great family medicine.

Methuselah was walking in his garden. 'My goodness,' he exclaimed suddenly, 'there's another flower on that century-plant! Why, it seems but yesterday since I plucked a blossom from it!'

He walked slowly toward an oak tree two hundred years old which he had tenderly raised on an acorn. 'Ah, me,' he mused, 'how time flies.'

A clergyman was about to leave his church one evening when he encountered a woman examining the carving on the front.

Judge David Torrence, of Derby, Conn., said a New Haven man, 'uttered many an epigram from the bench. In a case concerning a noise nuisance a scientist was once testifying before him about the speed of sound. 'Sound,' said the man, 'travels at the rate of 400 yards a second.' 'All sound?' asked Judge Torrence. 'All,' replied the scientist. 'The judge smiled. 'I'm sure you're wrong,' he said, 'I have noticed a great difference between the speed of certain kinds of sound. Thus, slanders travels at the rate of quite 1,000 yards a second; flattery, 500 yards; while truth makes only a few feet a second. Now, allow me to suggest to you, that if you wish to reach the goal, no matter how distant the distance.'

Sheep Dogs.
On the great sheep ranches of North America, as well as those of Argentina, the dog plays every year a more important part. The Argentine method is more complete, for by it the dog becomes part of the flock. The puppies are suckled by a ewe, and when grown up are fed only on vegetable food and milk, for which they visit the house, and having done, they rush back to their flock, pursued by the farm-dogs. When they reach the flock, they seem at once to gain courage, and turn on their pursuers. They guard the sheep, both night and day, and also assist the shepherds to drive them or collect them on the pastures. In the mountain districts of Colorado and in the far northern states, sheep dogs have been imported from countries as far distant as New Zealand. The most noted breed in Colorado is descended from a pair of these dogs, and their offspring have an inherited gift of shepherding.

A six-month-old puppy was employed with others in getting sixteen hundred sheep into a corral before a blizzard.

These difficulties are best overcome by Dr. Hamilton's Pills, which make the bowels active, stimulate kidneys and liver and thereby free the system of impurities. Whatis a Gentleman?
The question always comes up, 'What is a gentleman?' Some say he is a man with a silk hat, and others a man with a smooth tongue. But men connected with the newspaper trade have a canon of their own. 'Mr. Editor,' said a patron one day, 'how is it you never call on me to pay for your paper?' 'Oh said the man of types, 'we never ask a gentleman for money.' 'Indeed!' the patron replied. 'How do you manage to get along when they don't pay?' 'Why said Mr. Editor, 'after a certain time we conclude he is not a gentleman, and ask him.'

Mr Wm. Henry, of Chattanooga, Tenn., had rheumatism in his left arm. 'The strength seemed to have gone out of the muscles so that it was useless for work,' he says. 'I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and wrapped the arm in flannel at night, and to my relief I found that the pain gradually left me and the strength returned. In three weeks the rheumatism had disappeared and has not since returned.' It troubled with rheumatism try a few applications of Pain Balm. You are certain to be pleased with the relief which it affords. For sale at Rand's Drug Store.

The News—No Pure Drug Cough Cure Laws would be needed, if all Cough Cures were like Shoop's Cough Cure and has been for 20 years. The National Law now requires that if any person enters into a cough mixture, it must be printed on the label or package.

For this reason mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison-marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, else it must be law on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop packages with others and see. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Simply refuse to accept any other. A number of railway men were once discussing the question of accidents. 'The roads in Scotland,' said one official, used to have a bad name, indeed, in respect to accidents. No one thought of embarking on a railway journey unless he had provided himself with an accident policy of insurance.

The famous Dr. Notman Macleod was once about to set off on a long journey through the Scotch country. Just as the train was pulling out, the clergyman's servant put his head in the window and said: 'Ha'e ye ta'en an insurance ticket, sir?' 'Then,' replied the doctor, 'write ye'er name on it, and gie't it to me. They ha'e an awful habit of robbing the corpses on this line.'

MIDDLE LIFE

A Time When Women Are Susceptible to Many Dread Diseases—Intelligent Women Prepare for It. Two Relate Their Experiences.

The "change of life" is the most critical period of a woman's existence, and the anxiety felt by women as it draws near is not without reason. Every woman who neglects the care of her health at this time invites disease and pain. When her system is in a weakened condition, or she is predisposed to any ailment, this tendency is apt to be developed to a dangerous degree. At this time, also, cancer and tumors are more likely to be formed, and these are the most serious of all diseases. Such warning symptoms as a sense of exhaustion, hot flashes, headache, back-ache, dizziness, and palpitation of the heart, are the forerunners of the disease. It is, therefore, imperative that women at this time should take the most careful and intelligent care of their health. Dr. E. Powell's Compound is the best remedy for all these ailments. It is a pure vegetable compound, and it will cure all the ailments mentioned above. It is sold in 25c. boxes.

Another Woman's Case.
Dear Mrs. Powell:—I look it for five months and then I was cured. I had been suffering from the change of life for five months. I was very nervous, and I had hot flashes, headache, and back-ache. I had also a sense of exhaustion, and I was unable to do my work. I had tried many remedies, but nothing had done me any good. I had heard of your Compound, and I decided to try it. I bought a box, and I took it according to the directions. In three days I felt better, and in a week I was cured. I can now do my work as usual, and I feel like a new woman. I am very grateful to you for your Compound. I will recommend it to all my friends. Yours truly, Mrs. E. Powell.

Men Require Nerve and Blood Tonic.
How Are Your Nerves?
The daily grind of life burns up a man's vitality faster than he renews it. He gets shaky, starts at trifles, tosses in his sleep, is ready to fly off the handle any minute. The nervous man is nervous because his blood is so thin his nerves are starved to death. He needs Perrozene!
Its first action is on digestion. It stimulates secretion of gastric juice, ensures perfect digestion, prepares the food so it can be at once assimilated. Hence the blood is nourished, is fortified, made richer, stronger. To the whole organism is imparted a vim, endurance and reserve of vigor that the nervous man never knew before. The restorative power of Perrozene is marvelous. In a month it will make you feel like new, just as it did Mr. Karl E. Newsome, of Rothsay, who writes: 'I owe a debt of gratitude to Perrozene which saved my life after a severe stage of nervous prostration. About a year ago my health gave out. I was in such a weak, irritable condition I couldn't work, and found that three doctors did nothing for me. I was almost ready to give up, but I bought a box of Perrozene, and I am now as strong as ever. I can now do my work as usual, and I feel like a new man. I am very grateful to you for your Compound. I will recommend it to all my friends. Yours truly, Karl E. Newsome, Rothsay, N. S.'

Complicated Liver Troubles
Mr. John Wilson, carpenter, Wolfville, Ont., writes:—Some years ago I was attacked with kidney trouble, and I became so run down and emaciated that my only chance of recovery was a physical decline. At this point on the complaint grew worse and became complicated with liver trouble. I had pain across the back and up the spinal column, had bad spells with bilious pain under the right shoulder, bilious headache about half the time, indigestion, fever, and restlessness at night, and depression of spirits. I spent about one hundred dollars in medicines, with no perceptible result. Doctors' advice proved likewise of no avail. Finally, on the advice of a friend, I began taking Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and in a short time the bad symptoms began to gradually disappear, and by the time I had used five or six boxes I was enjoying better health than I had in many years. All of which is due to the virtues of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills." 25 cents a box, at all dealers.

Who Paid for Her Hat?
"Papa, will you please give me fifty cents for my spring hat? Most of the academy girls have theirs." "No, May; I can't spare the money." The request was peremptorily made by a sixteen-year-old maiden as she was preparing for school one fine spring morning. The refusal came from the parent in a curt, indignant tone. The disappointed girl went to school. The father started for his place of business. On his way thither he met a friend, and being half-fellow well met, he invited him into Mac's for a drink.

As usual there were others there, and the man that could not spare his daughter fifty cents for a hat treated the crowd. When about to leave he laid a half-dollar on the counter, which just paid for the drinks. Just then the saloon-keeper's daughter entered, and going behind the bar, said: "Papa, I want fifty cents for my spring hat." "All right," said the dealer, and taking the half-dollar from the counter, he handed it to the girl, who departed, smiling. "May's father seemed dazed, walked out alone, and said to himself: 'I had to bring my fifty cents here for the rum-seller's daughter to buy a hat with, after refusing it to my own daughter. I'll never drink another drop.'—Selected.
