LECTURES

$5 IN GOLD GIVEN AWAY

to the person who comes nearest to guessing the Professor's age. Everything explained at the first lecture.

Prof. W.G. Alexander

Who is everywhere acknowledged to be not only the ablest Phrenologist in America, but one of the most popular speakers on the platform today. In his imitable Lecture on Human Nature.

ST. PAUL'S INSTITUTE

EVERY NIGHT COMMENCING
MONDAY, MAY 3, 1915

ADMISSION FIRST NIGHT FREE. COLLECTION TAKEN AT THE CLOSE OF ENTERTAINMENT.

Public examinations on the stage of four or more ladies or gentlemen selected from the audience at close of each lecture. Private consultation daily from 10 a.m. at the Professor's parlors, Windsor Hotel, Room 119.

DON'T MISS HIS GREATEST LECTURE ON LOVE, COURTSHIP, MARRIAGE AND JEALOUSY.

EVERYBODY IS GOOD FOR SOMETHING

YET HOW VERY MANY MAKE LIFE A FAILURE. Because the right man does not find the right place.

THE QUESTION OF EVERY THINKING PERSON IS WHAT CAN I DO BEST?

Can I succeed as an attorney, artist or author? As a baker, book seller or broker? As a carpenter, clerk or chemist? As a dentist, or designer? As an editor or engineer? As a farmer or grocer? Can I invent, lecture or legislate? Can I succeed as a manufacturer, merchant or machinist? In music, navigation, oratory, painting or sculpture? As a preacher or physician, a poet or policeman? As a sailor or a soldier? A teacher, tragedian or writer?

PROF. ALEXANDER

—THE ABLE—
Phrenologist, Physiognomist

Who is widely known for his ability and usefulness in his profession is here and can be consulted at his quarters. Thousands can testify to the great good he has done them by giving scientific advice they can secure nowhere else.

KNOW THYSELF!

With the aid of science we can thoroughly know ourselves. Phrenology is the telescope and microscope through which the experienced Phrenologist reads character, discovers and discerns talents and the channels in which they should be employed. Years of practice and experience enables Professor Alexander to give a Phrenological Examination that can be absolutely relied upon as a guide to choosing a business or profession. You need not waste valuable time guessing, surmising and experimenting as to what vocation you should choose. He can tell you in a few minutes the business nature intended you to follow, and give the most pleasure and make the most money. Also how to woo, win and wed wisely and well.

THINK DEEPLY. DECIDE WISELY. ACT QUICKLY.

Private examinations given each day from 10 a.m. at the Professor's Parlors, Room 119 Windsor hotel.

NANAIMO HIGH SCHOOL

The whole of next week will be devoted to a test examination of the whole school with the twofold object of enabling both teachers and pupils to ascertain the weak points in the several studies and also to afford the pupils practice in that concentration of effort and attention so necessary in order to ensure success. The examination will be conducted almost exactly to the government schedule and the papers set will be based on the work covered so far in the year's course of study laid down by the Department of Education.

OPERA HOUSE

Tonight Alf. T. Layne and Company will conclude their successful engagement with that world famous play "Feg O' My Heart." The performance Monday night made such a decided hit that numerous requests were made to have it repeated and Mr. Lane concluded to do so tonight. If you did not see it make an effort tonight as it is one of the best plays presented here for some time and the Company is a very capable one.

The best yet—Marshmallow Fluff Sundae, 15c. at The Oasis.

Allegations of gross irregularities in the formation of the Bank of Vancouver were yesterday made in Supreme Court Chambers, when an application was brought by Mr. J. B. Patullo, on behalf of Dr. Barratt, for leave to proceed with an action for the rescission of an agreement to purchase shares in the bank.

BIJOU THEATRE

Ruth Roland appears today in a 2-part detective drama. She sets out to run down a desperate gang of pirates who are operating along the waterfront, but the pirates capture her and her escape from a very dangerous position makes a rousing climax to this 2-part feature.

Wild animal pictures are hard to obtain but the one to be shown today "A Leopard's Lair" is a story of a jungle zoo and the fight with the tiger is one of the best scenes ever exhibited in this kind of films. The comedy part of the program is a big feature today, three of the most rollicking kind received for some weeks, and will be sure to please all.

It's Great to be a Fan

FANS, for instance, know how managers have to work to build up a team. Every manager worth his salt has to work, and work hard, before he can get a team in pennant-winning form.

Now, it's just the same with stores—you've got to keep plugging and be right up-to-date to get into the Pennant Class, and once there you've got to keep on working to hold your place. That's why we never let up in our endeavor to improve our service and get the best for our patrons. For instance, look at our new
