Opposition Leader at Newcastle.

Borden and Bergeron Expound Liberal Conservative Principles Here.—Dr. Daniel and Senator Poirier Assist the Chief.

Mr. R. L. Borden, M. P., leader of the Liberal Conservative party, accompanied by Mr. J. C. H. Bergeron, M. P., Dr. Daniel, M. P., and Senator Poirier, spoke in the Newcastle Opera House on Tuesday evening, August 27th. The house was packed, standing room being at a premium. Numbers of people were there from Chatham, Redbank and other places near.

Mr. W. A. Hickson, president of the county Liberal-Conservative Association, James Robinson, ex-M. P.; D. Morrison, M. P. P.; Senator Poirier, John McKane, Col. Maltby, John Dalton, J. D. Creaghan, A. A. Davidson, K. C., John Ferguson, R. H. Armstrong, Chas. Dalton, R. H. Gremley, R. A. Lawlor, K. C., Kay Adams, H. V. S. Parker, Ald. John Clarke, John McAllister, Dennis Doyle, W. Dunn, Charles Dickinson, Thomas Russell, T. W. Butler, George Stables and others. The visitors were escorted to the Miramichi Hotel, where they made their headquarters. At 7.30 the Newcastle Band played a serenade before the hotel and, at eight o'clock, escorted Mr. Borden to the Opera House, where he was accorded a hearty reception.

Mr. Borden is on a tour of Canada from the Atlantic to the Pacific. In his opening speech at Halifax on the 20th ultimo, he laid down the following propositions, on which he purposes to contest the next elections:

The Conservative Platform.

1. Honest appropriation and expenditure of public money in public interest.
2. Appointment of public officials upon consideration of capacity and personal character and not of party service alone.
3. More effective provisions as to expenditure by political organizations, to prevent the accumulation of campaign funds for corrupt purposes and to prohibit contributions thereto by corporations, contractors and promoters, to expedite the hearing of elections petitions and to prevent collusive arrangements for the withdrawal or compromise thereof, to provide for a thorough investigation of corrupt practices, and if necessary to appoint an independent investigating officer charged with that duty, to simplify the procedure therefor and to enforce the law so amended.
4. A thorough and complete reformation of the laws relating to the Civil Service so that future appointments shall be made by an independent commission sitting upon the report of examiners after competitive examination.
5. Such reform in the mode of selecting members of the senate as will make that chamber a more useful and representative legislative body.
6. A more careful selection of the sources from which immigration shall be sought, a more rigid inspection of immigrants and abolition of the bonus system except under very special circumstances and for the purpose of obtaining a particularly desirable class of settlers.
7. The management and development of the public domain, in which are to be included great national franchises for the public benefit and under such conditions that a reasonable proportion of the increment of value arising therefrom shall inure to the people.
8. The operation and management of our government railways by an independent commission free from partisan control or interference.

9. The development and improvement of our national waterways, the equipment of national ports, the improvement of transportation facilities and consequent reduction of freight rates between the place of production and the market, whether at home or abroad and the establishment of a thorough system of cold storage.

10. The reorganization of the present railway commission as a public utilities commission with wider powers and more extended jurisdiction so as to establish thorough and effective control over all corporations owning or operating public utilities invested with franchises of a national character.

11. The establishment after due investigation of a system of national telegraphs and telephones under conditions which shall be just to capital already invested in those enterprises.

12. The improvement of existing postal facilities especially in newly developed portions of the country and the inauguration after proper inquiry as to the cost, of a system of free rural mail delivery.

13. A fiscal policy which will promote the production within Canada of all useful articles and commodities that can be advantageously produced or manufactured from or by means of our natural resources, having due regard to the interests of the consumer as well as to the just claims of our wage earning population.

14. The promotion by negotiation, legislation and other constitutional means of a national preferential trade within the Empire.

15. The restoration of the public lands to the provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan upon their return.

16. The united maintenance of all powers of self-government which have been conferred upon the provinces of Canada under the constitution.

The Newcastle Meeting

After a short address Chairman Hickson introduced Dr. Daniel, M. P. for St. John, who spoke very briefly and was followed by witty speeches in both English and French by Senator Poirier.

R. L. Borden.

Mr. Borden was the next speaker, and on his rising the band played "For he's a jolly good fellow," and the audience cheered.

Mr. Borden opened with a pleasant remark on the number of ladies present, and went on to say that his meetings in Nova Scotia and St. John had been very successful. He realized that the East of Canada was as great as the West.

It was impossible for him at every meeting to repeat all of his Halifax platform, but he would stand by every word of it.

He referred to the Saskatchewan land transactions, claiming that the government had sold vast tracts of lumber lands to their friends at a nominal price and without the formality of law or tender, thus enabling much of the country to be gobbled up by speculators.

Touching on the question of public franchises, he advocated that when the cost of bonds, as in the case of a great national enterprise such as the G. T. P., was guaranteed by the people of Canada some share of the common stock should be given to them.

He promised to reform the civil service bringing the latter into line with the system that prevails in Britain and, as he said, also in the United States. He would award positions on the result of competitive examinations only.

He then condemned the I. C. R. management, alleging that there was no discipline among the employees in Nova Scotia, and that there were too many employees for the work done.

He spoke of the West Huron and Brockville election scandals, and promised that such things shall not happen if the Conservatives come into power.

He also charged that much money had been wasted in fitting out the Arctic expedition.

The Conservative party had added to Canada all the new territory she had ever acquired, had built the I. C. R., stood for progress along all lines, and was going to win the next elections.

Mr. Borden's speech took an hour and a quarter.

J. Q. H. Bergeron.

Mr. Bergeron, who followed, was the humorist of the party, keeping the audience convulsed with laughter most of the time. He said there were only two political parties in Canada, and two were enough. There had been only two

GLoucester County FORGING AHEAD.

Talk of New Industries in Petit Rocher and Bathurst.

Mr. H. G. Turner, a Civil Engineer employed by Senator Edwards of Ottawa, visited Bathurst and Petit Rocher last week, making inspection of the facilities offered both in Bathurst and Petit Rocher for the erection of large lumber and pulp mills such as Senator Edwards contemplates erecting on the North Shore of New Brunswick for manufacturing of his products from the extensive limits he has recently purchased in Bonaventure County, Que.

Mr. Turner was favorably impressed with the advantages offered at Bathurst, and more particularly at Petit Rocher where the wharf breakwater now in construction will give the best desirable shipping facilities with deep water terminus and railway connection with the Intercolonial Railway.

The distance across the Bay des Chaleurs from Bonaventure River to Petit Rocher is only twenty miles as compared with at least thirty eight miles to Dalhousie.

Besides, Petit Rocher district is richly supplied with limestone and pulp wood.

The Petit Rocher people are in hopes of securing the great industry owing to the superior advantages of their port and surroundings. There is also a ferry service between Petit and Bonaventure River, which would be a great benefit to the business.

Wedding Bells.

MOAR—FITZPATRICK.

A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday morning at 8.30 o'clock in St. Patrick's church, Nelson, the contracting parties being Miss Mae A. Fitzpatrick, daughter of John Fitzpatrick, and Mr. Hugh A. Moar, of Chatham. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Power, after which nuptial mass was celebrated. The bride wore a dainty gown of cream silk tulle, with over dress of point d'esprit, and pretty white hat. She was attended by her sister, Miss Cecilia Fitzpatrick, who was gowned in green silk tulle, with over dress of point d'esprit. Both bride and bridesmaid carried handsome floral bouquets. The groom had the support of his brother, Mr. Fred Moar, of Chatham.

After the ceremony the happy couple drove to the home of the bride's parents, where breakfast was partaken of, after which they left for a wedding trip to Boston and other American cities.

The bride was the recipient of a large array of gifts showing the high esteem in which she is held by all. The young couple have the best wishes of a large number of friends for a long and happy wedded life.

scandals among Conservative rule from 1878 to 1896, both of which had been thoroughly investigated, and the criminals punished. But the present government shielded its criminals from exposure and even promoted some of them.

He claimed that the Liberals had broken their pledges regarding free trade, economy, etc. They had kept the high tariff. Their changes in the tariff were responsible for the fact that to-day a man must pay nearly two dollars for what he could get for one dollar under the late Conservative regime. Prices had gone up from fifty to seventy per cent., and the workman did not get wages enough. A proper tariff, such as the Conservatives propose, will remedy this evil.

Since the Liberals came into power Canada had imported $6,400,000 worth of cottons and $14,000,000 of woollens. These goods might have been made in Canada had the tariff not been tinkered with. One government after another should be turned out until we get an honest one.

Mr. Bergeron spoke fifty-five minutes.

There were insistent calls from the audience for Mr. John McKane, who briefly responded, speaking of the great pleasure afforded the people of the North Shore by this visit of the leader and expressing the conviction that the next M. P. from this county would be a follower of Mr. Borden. He moved a vote of thanks to the speakers of the evening, which was heartily carried.

Messrs. Borden and Bergeron left on the Maritime express that night for Three Rivers, where they were scheduled to speak next.

Senator Poirier and Dr. Daniel returned to their homes next day. Among the audience at Tuesday's meeting were Premier Robinson and Hon. F. J. Sweeney.

C. M. B. A. CONVENTION.

Fourteenth Assembly Well Attended—Membership And Balance Steadily Growing.

MONTREAL, August 27.—

The fourteenth convention of the Catholic Mutual Benevolent Association opened here this morning. The procession in which over 1000 took part passed through the principal streets en route to St. James Cathedral where pontifical mass was celebrated in the presence of a large congregation. In the afternoon the convention was opened by Grand President Hon. M. F. Hackett, who reviewed the work of the Association, since the last convention three years ago and congratulated the delegation on the prosperous condition. Grand Secretary J. J. Behar, of Kingston, Ont., presented his report for the past three years ending June 30th, 1907. There are at present 414 active branches, 22,000 members, and a reserve fund of $236,515.19; $944,957.94 was paid out in death benefits. To-night the visiting delegates will be entertained at Dominion Park.

In his triennial address grand president Hackett advocated an increase and adjustment of rates.

As to the question of the admission of women as members, President Hackett informed the convention that until the opinion of the hierarchy was known nothing would be done. As this information cannot be obtained till October nothing will be done in the matter at the present convention.

Reports presented showed the C. M. B. A. had increased its membership by 5,164 since the last convention in 1904 in Toronto. The total membership is now 21,144.
