and tender the amount of the duty, and a certificate, which the officer had no means of ascertaining whether it were obtained by fraud or not, and although there might be half a-dozen licensed houses in the neighbourhood of that of the applicant, the officer was obliged to grant the required licence. The consequences were that persons who had ostensibly no means of sheltering and accommodating travellers or their horses, were enabled by borrowing a sufficiency of beds, and the loan of a stable with the required number of stalls, from some good natured neighbours, to impose upon two easy or indolent Justices of Peace, to grant the certificate required by law, and the houses when thus licensed, turned out as might be expected, dens of vice of every description. In order to prevent improper persons from obtaining licences, and to limit the number, the Grand Jury were entrusted with the power of refusing licenses, unless they were satisfied that a house of the description contemplated by law was actually wanted in the situation where the party resides. So that instead of travelling out of the path of their duty in refusing licences, they but carry out the stringent provisions of the Act, in exercising a great degree of caution, first as to whether they will increase the number of licensed tavern-keepers, and secondly, prevent improper persons from obtaining licences.

Our readers will perceive, that all this tirade against two unoffending members of the Sons of Temperance, is as unjust as it was uncalled for. It is highly amusing, however, to be told at this time of day, that "Grand Juries have no political or moral responsibility." Our ancestors thought otherwise, and we rather think that their descendants are of the same opinion that their father's were, at the institution of a body whose political responsibility bears the same proportion to the individual County they represent, that the House of Representatives bear to all the Counties in the aggregate, and whose moral responsibility is guarded and enforced by the most solemn oath that could well be devised.

PUBLIC MEETING IN AID OF THE PATRIOTIC FUND, IN PRINCE COUNTY.

At a meeting of the inhabitants of Prince County, holden at the Court House in St. Eleanor's, on Wednesday the 10th day of January, 1855, called in pursuance of, and in compliance with a Requisition addressed to the High Sheriff of Prince County:

BAZAAR.

The Bazaar held on the 18th inst., has more than realized the sanguine expectations of those who first suggested, and have now fully carried out, the benevolent undertaking. The proceeds realized, amount to about £120. The spacious Temperance Hall was richly decorated with flags, Spruce, &c., for the occasion; and the day being unusually fine, afforded those who encouraged the undertaking by their presence, it is hoped, some salutary enjoyment, besides an opportunity of exercising their benevolence. The Ladies of the Committee faithfully executed the important trust confided to them; their personal applications to various inhabitants of Charlottetown for work and contributions, were, with scarcely an exception, promptly responded to, and thus the goodly reputation which Charlottetown has long earned for itself, has again been verified; and it must not be forgotten, that there are those, who have lent a kindly and very efficient aid to this Bazaar, whose names, although they do not appear on the Committee, yet are well known in the dwellings of the children of want, of misery and affliction, and who exemplify that beautiful spirit of Charity which vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up. It speaks well of the attractive and useful nature of the various articles exhibited for sale, as also of the naivete and attraction of the various sellers, that scarcely any of the numerous articles remained unsold. The Cake table presented an unusually handsome appearance, being tastefully decorated and enriched with every variety of that delicacy,—one cake, in particular, a contribution from Mrs. Rigg, elicited universal admiration. This department, as might be expected, contributed largely to the amount realized. The Coffee, likewise, being presided over by those who understood the thing had a perpetual run. With the proceeds, or as much thereof as possible it is in contemplation to form the nucleus of some organized system of a poor House, or house of refuge, on a small scale; which it is hoped, with the assistance of an annual Legislative Grant, may, after a time, be got into operation; and thus to prevent that system of begging from door door which tends so much to destroy all Christian Charity amongst us, because of the difficulty that exists of ascertaining the immediate wants of the applicants, many of whom too readily take advantage of such a state of things. Perhaps it is this which has caused some to say, "We have no poor amongst us." Yet if any one having this impression, would summon resolution (for it is often a matter of much delicacy,) and would then ascertain, by personal inspection and other available sources, the true state of many of our poor, such person's ideas would probably be considerably changed. At this inclement season many of the most deserving cannot come from their abodes to make application. Let us remember that though poverty as well as misery, is occasionally, the offspring of vice, yet, that it is not always so,—therefore let us be grateful for our blessings, and that some whence it may, it surely demands our sympathy and aid.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.

Extract of a letter from a gentlemen at Green's Shore.

Mr. Thomas Robins jun., and sisters Ann and Mary, with a Miss Johnston, from Margate Road, were on a visit to a Mr. Proctors,, at Green's Shore; they left at about half-past eight o'clock on Tuesday evening, to return home to Bedeque. At the time of their leaving the shore, it was snowing a little, and they lost the track, and drove out towards the harbour; the young man got out of the sleigh, and was leading his horse by the bridle, when he suddenly walked into an opening in the ice, the sleigh upset, and they were all precipitated in the water. Mr. Robins thinks they were in the water for half an hour before any of them got out, the first who succeeded in getting on the ice, and then got his two sisters out, tried hard to save Miss Johston, but before he could reach her, she sank out of sight, to rise no more. They then started for the shore, not knowing where they were going, and when they had walked about two miles, Ann Robins was unable to walk farther, and they were obliged to leave her on the ice. They then saw a light in some of the houses at the wharf, which served them as a guide, and when they reached Green's Shore, Mary being also unable to walk, her brother was obliged to go to Mr. McEwen's to procure assistance to get her conveyed to the house; this was about 12 o'clock, p. m. An alarm was instantly raised, and in a short time, about sixty men proceeded in search of the other sister, but were unable to discover the body till after daylight on Wednesday morning, when it was found frozen to death. They also found the body of Miss Johnston floating in the water, close to the sleigh. Mary Robins is badly frozen, but is not considered dangerously ill.

The Second of the series of Meetings held in the Temperance Hall will take place on Thursday next, chair to be taken at 8 o'clock, Capt. Orlebar and others, will address the Meeting. The choir will sing some appropriate pieces, and instrumental music has been kindly volunteered. Collection to defray expences.

DR. M'LANE'S LIVER PILLS.

☞ This great medicine has supplanted all others for the cure of diseases of the Liver. Its effects are so salutary and speedy, and at the same time so perfectly safe, that it is not surprising it should supersede all other. Invented by a very distinguished physician of Virginia, who practised in a region of country in which Hepatic, or Liver Complaint, is peculiarly formidable and common, and who had spent years in discovering the ingredients and proportioning their quantities, these Pills are peculiarly adapted to every form of the disease, and never fail to alleviate the most obstinate cases of that terrible complaint. They have justly become celebrated; and the researches of Dr. M'Lane have placed his name among the benefactors of mankind. No one having symptoms of this formidable complaint, should be without these invaluable Pills. Have you a pain in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, which increases with pressure—unable to lie with ease on the left side—with occasional, sometimes constant, pain under the shoulder-blade, frequently extending to the top of the shoulder? Rely upon it, that although the latter pains are sometimes taken for rheumatic, they all arise from disease of the Liver; and if you would have relief, go instantly and buy a box of Dr. M'Lane's Liver Pills.

☞ Purchasers will be careful to ask for Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Liver Pills, and take none else. There are other Pills, purporting to be Liver Pills, now before the public. Dr. M'Lane's Liver Pills, also his Celebrated Vermifuge, can now be had at all the respectable Drug Stores in the United States and Canada.
