It is pleasing to know that Dr. Conroy who has been very ill is making excellent progress toward complete recovery.

Rev. Father Gagnon, Sulpician from Montreal, spent Sunday in this city, and left on Monday for Bonris en route to the Magdalen Islands.

The advertisement of William Conroy the Shoeman, at Sunnyside, will be found in this issue. For bargains in boots and shoes a visit should be paid to his store.

Rev. Father Hamilton of Yarmouth, N. S., has been on a short visit to the Island. He preached an eloquent sermon at the High Mass in St. Dunstan's Cathedral on Sunday.

Don't forget that the Tea Party, in aid of St. Charles Church, Grosbeak, takes place at Rolfe Bay Station on Wednesday July 29th. Those in charge of the arrangements are determined that this shall be the best Tea Party yet.

It is formally welcoming the American naval officers to England the King took occasion to make an emphatic declaration in favor of closer relations. His Majesty did not speak of alliance, or even an understanding, but impressed it clearly that he desired the two nations to move together in the interests of the peace of the world.

Rev. Alfred Connelly and John Cullen of the Archdiocese of Boston, are visiting the Island. They arrived by the Halifax last week and are the guests of Rev. Dr. Doyle at St. Joachim's Vernon River. Father Connelly sang the High Mass at St. Joachim's on Sunday last and Father Cullen preached.

Rev. F. L. Van Beekers of the Dominican Order, attached to St. John the Baptist's Church, Ottawa, reached the city on Monday from Summerside, where he had arrived on Saturday. On Tuesday morning he crossed to Picton by the Prince. Thence he proceeds to Halifax and from there to Boston and other cities in the United States, on a brief vacation.

In this issue will be found the advertisement of Kinkora Tea, to take place on Tuesday next, 21st inst. A pleasant outing is assured to all who attend. Abundance of good things, amusements of all kinds and games galore are in store for all visitors to Kinkora on this occasion. All this being so, there is no excuse for staying away. Don't forget the date, July 21st.

The Monster Tea at Bear River Station, on Wednesday next, 22nd inst., is the all-absorbing topic all along the line. Cheap fares, a worthy object and the assurance of being well entertained and amused to your hearts content, should be sufficient inducement for any one to attend this "Monster Tea." All aboard for Bear River Station.

A reception on board the flagship Ariadne last Thursday at which several hundred guests formed the chief feature of the entertainment in connection with the visit to Bar Harbor, Maine, of the British squadron given by Captain Douglas and the Captain's acknowledgment of courtesies extended Friday morning some fifty officers were entertained at breakfast by the "Fox and Kettle Club" and in the evening Admiral Sands dined with Admiral Douglas and his Captain on board the flagship.

Mr. Kenneth McPherson, ecclesiastic, who recently returned from the Grand Seminary, Quebec, in Minor Orders, was ordained sub-deacon in St. Dunstan's Cathedral on Sunday morning last, by his Lordship Bishop McDonald. The Rev. gentleman will be ordained deacon Sunday next, and on Saturday the 25th, will be raised to the dignity of the priesthood. On the following day, Sunday the 26th, Father McPherson will celebrate his first Mass in the church of his native parish, Vernon River. The sermon on the occasion will be preached by Rev. Dr. Morrison.

The following Militia changes are announced from Ottawa: 82nd Queens, Lieut Shaw resigns commission and is permitted to retain rank of Lieut; Capt Allen is granted brevet rank of Major; to be Lieut, second Lieut M. A. Shaw; to be second Lieut, provisionally (3rd) Sergt. J. MacMillan; Capt Hooper resigns commission; Paymaster and honorary Major sheriff, having left the militia, the name is moved from the list of officers of the active militia; to be paymaster with honorary rank of Capt D. L. Hooper; to be Capt, Lieut A. J. B. Mellish.

The Tea Party, held under the auspices of Branch 333, C. M. B. A., at Vernon River on Wednesday last, 8th inst., was a splendid success and highly creditable in every particular. The attendance was large, well up to 2,000; the best of order prevailed and all present enjoyed themselves to their hearts content. An excellent address was delivered by Rev. Dr. Doyle, setting forth the aims and objects of the association and the advantages of membership therein. At 8 o'clock p. m., the church doors were thrown open by order of the Rev. pastor, Dr. Doyle, and attending visitors had the privilege of entering and enjoying exquisite music from the magnificent new organ, played by Miss Mary O'Neill. The net receipts of the gathering are in the vicinity of $600. The proceeds go towards the completion of the beautiful new C. M. B. A. hall, well done Branch 333!

King Edward signally honored the officers of the American squadron last Wednesday night at the state ball given in Buckingham Palace, climax of the visit of President Lobet. His Majesty formally received Admiral Cotton and the Captains of the American ships and 25 American officers and Queen Alexandra later gave them the same distinction. The ball was the first since the accession of the King. It was a brilliant function and the majority of the members of the Royal family and prominent representatives of nobility, officers of American and French ships now in British waters were present. To Rear Admiral Cotton, the King expressed his gratification at the visit of the squadron and enquired if all arrangements were made for the comfort of American officers and sailors. The Admiral replied that they had fallen among friends and care was taken of himself and others. His Majesty had a pleasant word to say to each officer.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

Latest accounts from Rome indicate that the Pope's condition is not much changed.

The excursion to Orupend on Monday last on board the City of London by the members of Branch 333, C. M. B. A., Fort Augustus and their friends was a most enjoyable outing.

The schooner Gold Seeker, was capsized in a heavy squall during the night of July 2nd, some miles off Isle Pinot, near Colon, Columbia. The mate, cook, boatswain Patrick Downey and Moore were drowned.

WHAT might have been a serious accident occurred at Dark River. While Mr. Michael Hill was leaning against the railing of the bridge the railing gave way and he was thrown into the water. He had very heavy clothing on at the time and although an expert swimmer he immediately sank. His cries were heard by a boy who came to his rescue and succeeded in helping him out of the water.

The directors of the Dominion Iron and Steel Company have lately taken up at par bonds of the company to the amount of $1,500,000. It is said that Senator Cox took $200,000 of bonds, and that Mr. James Ross, Sir William Van Horne, Senator Forget, Senator McKay and Messrs. E. B. Angus and J. A. Plummer, each took $100,000. The money is to be laid out in the development of the plant at Sydney.

JURIST Armour, one of Canada's Commissioners on the Alaska boundary case, who had been ill for some weeks in London, died there on Saturday morning last. Chief Justice Armour was born in 1830. He was appointed justice of the Court of Queen's Bench in Ontario on the recommendation of Mr. Blake in the year 1877, and was proposed by Sir John Macdonald to the presidency of the Court in 1887. He was several times offered knighthood, but declined.

ON Thursday next Brudenelle Island, one of the most beautiful of the many beauty spots in eastern Kings, will be the scene of an interesting function, the celebration of the centenary of the arrival of the pioneers of Brudenelle, and the unveiling of a monument erected to their memory by their descendants. The program will include dedicatory prayer, suitable music, recitation of a poem composed for the occasion, Scottish selections and addresses by prominent speakers.

The electric storm Sunday was very heavy in the west, and the house of Edward Symonds, Lot 16, was struck by lightning at 8.30. Mr. Symonds was in bed at the time, and his boy was in the adjoining room. The current entered by the fire, passing a large hole in the roof, smashed the windows in the boy's room, and went in through the wall about a foot from Mr. Symonds' head, knocking a quantity of plaster over him. The walls were considerably shattered and some little girls in the adjoining room were hit by falling plaster. Mr. Symonds and the boy were stunned for a few minutes, but nobody was seriously injured.

At Millers Cross Wm. Bruce's barn was damaged by the cyclone Sunday night, and Noah Campbell's barn was blown down, and all the windows in the house were shattered. Jonathan McNeill's new house was badly damaged. Nobody was hurt.

KINKORA TEA

Tuesday, July 21st, 1903.

A Grand Tea Party will be held on the grounds adjoining the beautiful Church of St. Malachi, Kinkora. The ladies of the parish are determined to make this day's enjoyment something not soon to be forgotten by those who attend.

Among the many attractions around about this charming section of the country is, of course, the new Church with its beautifully decorated sanctuary and new altar recently placed in position. The latter is a masterpiece of architectural beauty well worthy of the inspection of the most fastidious critic. Nothing more tasty is to be found in Lower Canada. The ladies of the parish who have generously donated this gift to the Church, most cordially invite inspection on the 21st inst.

We Have Not Been Dealing in Stocks,

But like the lambs on the market when margins are asked for we are looking two ways for CASH. For years we have been using in our business quite a sum of money belonging to others. We are asked to return this money. We have large stocks of Furniture, but very little cash. Our only recourse therefore is to turn our stocks of FURNITURE into CASH. This we are going to do if

BIG DISCOUNTS

Will do it. We had a good sale last week and expect a larger rush this week.
