ACHESON & COX.—The new firm of Acheson & Cox (formerly Geo. Cox & Co.) on the square near West Street, are rushing things. The windows are attractive, some choice new stock has been bought, and the big advertisement is being sent through town and country in the Star. Will the new firm you saw their big ad. in the paper.

THE "STAR" POET.—The London Advertiser says:—"Some interesting but unknown individual has favored us with a poem celebrating the defeat of Mr. C. Cameron. The poem is of the type which the machine keep in the backyard grinds out as required, but is credited to R. J. Dunsmore, Goderich. Mr. Dunsmore's poetic steed we fear, is a mule."

WEST THROUGH THE ICE.—A part belonging to James Mahaffy, of Port Albert, while drawing a load from that place to Goderich, went through the ice near the south pier. They were got out with the assistance of poles, etc., but not until one of the horses had been in the water nearly 20 minutes. It was fortunate the accident occurred so near the harbor.

CORRECTIONS.—In the report given of the Sunday School Convention published last week several errors occurred. It was the North street Methodist church, of Goderich, that gave the $5 credited to the Provincial S. S. Association. Rev. Mr. Craig, of Clinton, is not a vice-president.

RECOVERING.—We are glad to learn that the wife of Capt. Petrie is recovering from the injury sustained in the fall while attending to domestic duties about three months ago. Mrs. Petrie by this accident had one of her legs broken near the knee, and has since suffered greatly. She is now rapidly recovering, although the nature of the injury will leave its effects for a long while.

NOVEL ENTERTAINMENT.—After Easter the High School Literary Society will give a public entertainment. These taking part will be pupils, and ex-pupils of the school, who will be divided into two parties, each under a leader. It is expected that the programmes when presented will contain startling novelties, and that the entertainment will be the event of the season.

By the return made in the Surrogate Court in Scotland it appears that Kennedy, the vocalist, left after discharging all the debts and funeral expenses, $7,184 1/2 to his administrator, to this he leaves assets in Australia to the value of £7,000, besides £1,400 heritable property. In all £15,500. Canadian friends of the family will rejoice to hear that they are so comfortably off.

The early demise of Mrs. H. W. C. Meyer, of Wingham, daughter of Hon. A. M. Ross, of Goderich, has caused much regret in town. Mrs. Meyer was a lady of many estimable qualities, and was held in high esteem both in Wingham and in her old home. Her remains will be interred in the family vault here this (Friday) afternoon. The funeral will take place at three o'clock from her father's residence.

In the Ontario Institution for the Blind at Brantford, of which Mr. W. N. Housie, formerly of Goderich, is the bursar, there were in attendance last year 130 pupils. The cost of maintenance amounted to $32,574.73, against $28,282.52 to 1885. The Brantford institution is one of the most judiciously managed of the kind in the Province, and is doing good work for the unfortunate class for whom it was designed.

Cattle buyers report that the outlook for the coming season is very discouraging at the present time. Prices in the English markets are ruling even lower than last fall, and should this state of things continue, as everything appears to indicate it to be the case, there will be no encouragement for dealers entering into the purchase of stock for shipment with an almost certain prospect of losing money in venture.

THE OFFICE BUREAU.—In an article on "Some Prominent Members of the Bore Family," in the Canada Presbyterian, says:—"The office bureau the man who drops into the office without any business, and 'sits around' for an hour or two. He always amuses, if anybody gives him with the raw material. If he had any business, the office would be happy to see him, but he never has business or money. All he proposes to give for his lodging is his property. Editors suffer more than any other class of men from the office bore. Being most uninteresting men, they never like to give the bore a hint to retire. Lawyers suffer the least. Their check being as hard as their statures they usually find ways and means for shortening his visit.

Rev. John A. Williams, D. D., General Superintendent of the Methodist church of Canada, preached in North-st. church Sunday last, morning and evening. There was a large congregation at each service, and those who went were most pleased with the discourse. The Rev. doctor is personally a great favorite with the people of Goderich, irrespective of creed, and whenever he comes this way is sure of a hearty reception from almost every one he meets.

The Winnipeg, Free Press says:—"Mr. E. D. Carey has been appointed assistant examiner of the titles under the land titles act. This appointment meets with the approval of the legal profession, as did that of Mr. W. E. Macara to a similar position a short time ago. They are both lawyers of good standing and are personally popular with all who know them. Mr. Carey enters on the duties of his new office at once. Both Mr. Carey and Mr. Macara were former residents of Goderich.

HOW HALTON COUNTY PRINTING IS DONE.—The Champion will print 500 copies of the minutes, etc., of the County Council this year for $37. The Champion received $121.33 for doing the printing of the minutes, etc., in 1879, and the Champion didn't make an unreasonable profit that year either. We are not doing county work for less than nothing and boarding ourselves yet in this end of the county. To board in jail would be preferable and in our opinion more honorable.—Aston Free Press.

A STRANGE INCIDENT.—Thomas Hopkins, an inmate of the Elgin House of Industry, who recently served a term in jail for battering the face of the Poor House cook, eloped from the institution Saturday night with Mrs. Peor who has levanted on sundry previous occasions. The couple took with them Mrs. Peor's two children, aged four and seven years, and a quantity of clothing belonging to the institution. The woman is continuously smoking, and Hopkins can be recognized by the absence of his lower lip, eaten away by a cancer.

TRIMPHANT TORONTO.—There was a grand jubilation at Exeter on Friday last, attended by a large representation of Conservatives from West and South Huron, South Perth and North Middlesex. F. W. Johnston, W. Campbell and Capt. McGregor, of Goderich, were among the guests. Mr. Porter of Simcoe, who will represent West Huron at the coming session of Parliament, was among the speakers, and made an eloquent speech. Mr. Porter taught a country school in Uxbridge for several years, but he never had a chance of being returned to Parliament where he was known.

DEATH OF A PIONEER MINISTER.—We are this week called upon to chronicle the death of Rev. John Towler, father of Dr. Towler and Mrs. R. McIndoo, of Wingham, who departed this life at his residence, Bluevale road, on Thursday night last week, at the advanced age of 73 years. The deceased was a pioneer missionary of the Methodist church, and had an eventful and interesting history. The funeral sermon will be delivered in the Methodist church, next Sunday evening, by Rev. Robt. Boyle, of Brampton, who is an old time associate of the deceased.—Wingham Times.

The San Francisco Occident, the organ of the Presbyterians of California, has the following reference to a former townsman, who is now pastor of St. John's church, one of the leading churches of San Francisco:—"Take heed therefore how ye hear." This was the theme chosen by the pastor, Rev. A. B. McIndoo, for his discourse last Sunday morning, and was one of the ablest sermons ever delivered by this young and growing divine. The subject was handled with vigorous eloquence, and listened to with breathless attention by his audience; the writer could not but be struck by the fact that the people of his charge had been earnestly praying for the success of the gospel message delivered with so much power and fearlessness. Services as usual, and we are glad to see that the Wednesday evening prayer-meetings are now more than ever, and we trust a blessing is in store for both pastor and people.

THE RANKIN SCOTTISH CONCERT CO.—On Friday evening last lovers of Scottish music, song and dancing had a rich treat. The Rankin Concert Company, presented a program which pleased young and old, and made those present regret that more of their friends were not there to enjoy the affair. Mr. Rankin in his sentimental and serio-comic songs was capital, and was several times encored. His "Battle of Stirling" was most thrillingly rendered. Miss Rankin in her solos and duets was well received. Miss Aggie Rankin as a juvenile singer made a decided hit. The absence, through illness of Miss Swan, leading lady vocalist, was regretted, although Mr. Rankin supplied her numbers in a most satisfactory manner. Robert Ireland, the piper, in his "Bourasiana" rendered popular airs on the pipes in a way that stirred the blood of Highlanders present, and in his accompaniment to the dancers showed himself to be a complete master of the pipes. "The Little 4" gave an exhibition of dancing which has never been beaten in Goderich. The Reel, the Fling, and the Swore Dance were executed in a way that delighted the audience, while Aggie Rankin in the "Irish Jig," and the two lads in the "Sailor's Hornpipe," set the audience wild with enthusiasm and applause. We can commend this Company to the public as offering a program at once select, pleasing, amusing and refined.

The many friends of Stanley Hays, will be pleased to learn that he has secured a position in a law office in Chicago. Stanley was recently admitted to the bar here as a Barrister and Solicitor, but preferred striking out West, to removing to home. He has been made a member of the profession of Chicago, and speaks very highly of the courtesy extended to him by brother lawyers since he went there. On Stanley, on.

BRUSSELS TO THE FRONT.—Last Monday G. A. Deadman received a commensurate diploma, to be followed by a medal, from the Colonial Exhibition, London, Eng., on his bouy exhibit sent there last year. Mr. Deadman has taken a great interest in his work and we are pleased to know that he has won this proud distinction where the laurels were so hotly and closely contested. We believe he will do a larger trade than ever this coming season.—Post.

The Safford Examiner says:—"Mr. George Stewart, of Goderich, brother of Mr. C. Stewart of this town, who has attained considerable distinction as an artist, has completed an excellent crayon portrait of Bishop Walsh, of London, which was purchased by Mr. E. Franks of an art store, and is now on exhibition in Mr. C. L. Papp's jewelry store. It is most creditable to the artist, and has been much and deservedly admired by all who have seen it."

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor, North street Methodist church held their regular meeting last Friday night, as follows:—President, Rev. G. R. Turk; vice-president, J. W. Pearen; Secretary, Miss M. Robertson; assistant secretary, Miss L. Sherman; treasurer, Mrs. F. McLean, chorister, E. Belcher. The young people are re-organizing under very favorable circumstances, and the large attendance and hearty feeling that pervaded the meeting indicate the activity there is in this society. All are welcome at their meetings every Friday night. A social under the auspices of this Society, will be held on Friday April 1st. An interesting musical and educational programme will be offered. Admission 10c; double tickets 25c.

GRANDMA ROBINSON.—One of the oldest settlers in this part of the county is Mrs. Robinson, of Goderich township, familiarly known as "Grandma Robinson." She came to Goderich 54 years ago, when the town was a wilderness, and has remained in the locality ever since. She lived previous to her coming here at Lewis's Corners, near Brockville, and while there nursed the future Crown Attorney of Huron, after whose predecessors her name was called. "I often had him on my lap, when he was a baby," said Mrs. Robinson, "and he's all right yet. I was married on the floor of his father's house, and only left there to come here to my own home. I am in good health yet, thank God, although 84 years of age. I eat a strong cup of tea, and a piece of bread and butter, and that's all I want in the morning."

To the Shamrock.

From the Toronto Telegram.

Is it thy name?

Or is it fame?

That gives to our hearts such a rapturous thrill!

The rose's bloom

Lifts not from its beauty

The soul—nor doth its glory the eye doth dim.

The lily's white,

And its fragrance both exuberant and rare;

But faith's green leaf,

No noisier flower can ever with it compare.

Then three-leafed stem,

And Faith's starry gem,

May the lands that bear thee forever be

St. Patrick's name,

And three persons in One, the Godhead Divine.

Government Intimidation.

In another part of the territories, Mr. W. W. McLina, a lawyer, was sent in ostensibly to procure settlements, leases. His real object is to be found in the following extraordinary circular, which he placed in the hands of every applicant for Government consideration:

Dear Sir,—I deem it to be part of my duty as solicitor for your rebellion, to inform you in reference to the Federal elections, that on Friday last I telegraphed my agents in Ottawa, who are attending to your interests there, the following message:—"Please wire me what seems the real result of the election so far."

Yesterday I received by telegram the following reply:—"Government majority so far is twelve. Two hundred and four constituencies have so far elected members; there remain 100 constituencies to be held. It may be assumed that the Government will receive at least half of these."

Now, in conclusion, I will remind you that by section 51 of the Representation Act, each voter casts openly, and his vote goes one for or against the Government in the poll book. By section 61 of the same Act, the poll books must be forwarded to Ottawa after the election here. As it is certain that the Government is not defeated, the votes will be paid this next session, yours I trust with the rest. Your obedient servant,

(Signed) W. W. McLina.

Were the vote by ballot, it would be possible for the poor settlers to resent the insult offered to their freedom by these rascally emissaries of the Tory party. As it is, they know that the present Government has taken good care not to extend the ballot to the territories, and that if they vote against the Tory candidate they will be branded as rebels, as Mr. Davin, with honest self-regard, has told them. It is to be hoped that there are few civilized countries on the face of the earth where such refined cruelty would be tolerated by a free people. We are accustomed to refer to Russian methods of Government as revolting to humanity. In the Russian Empire, however, the Russian Government is no worse than Canadian Toryism, which stands over the poor settler in the Northwest and says to him, "No matter how much against your conscience, you have to vote for our candidate, or you get no seed grain."—Hamilton Times.

Goderich Township.

While George Elliott was chopping on the farm of Thos. McKee, on the 24th of Goderich township on Saturday forenoon, a limb fell from a tree, striking him on the arm, and breaking it above the elbow. He was at once moved to the residence of his uncle, David McBrien, and under careful medical treatment is improving.

Shepparton.

Two new barns will be built this summer in this section, one by J. Ekin, Esq., and the other by A. Horton. Both are now engaged getting out the timber. N. Dougherty, who was to have gone out to Dakota this month, to spend the summer, broke one of the bones in his leg by a fall on the ice in Goderich Saturday last, and on that account will not be able to undertake the trip for some time.

A. H. Horton was at Clinton last week for repairs to his threshing machine. He recently threshed out the crop of W. Graham for 1886 to make barn room for 1887.

John Hogarth, who spent the winter here, thought bachelor life would be rather irksome in Dakota, and was married to Miss Isabella McLeod last week, at her brother's residence, by Rev. Mr. Black. A large number of friends were present at the ceremony, and after passing a pleasant evening, wished the young couple all happiness and a safe journey to their new home.

Mr. Cain and family from the township of West Williams, middlesex, have settled here on the farm of J. Hogarth, who went to Dakota three years ago.

SENSIBLE ADVICE.—Bill Nye writes to a bald headed friend who asks his advice about hair restorers as follows:—"Take your hair restorer money and buy a town lot in a growing town that supports its home paper, and advertises and goes ahead, and you will find in twenty years you will be well fixed, and a man who is well fixed does not care much whether he has much hair or not."

BORE.
