To Aid Egypt To the Empire.

New York, Jan. 25 .- A cable to the New York Times from Rome says: The Corriere d'Italia publishes a remarkable story, said to have been obsources, which, in a way, confirms the London despatch printed a few months ago to the effect that the British Government was taking steps to have British rule in Egypt made de jure, as it has for many years been de facto.

The Italian paper in question asserts that as the result of long interviews which Lord Kitchener has recently had with the Khedive, a scheme has been formulated, according to which, as soon as peace is concluded in the Balkans, the Sultan of Turkey will issue an irade, similar to that which he issued in the case of Libya, after the Italo-Turkish war, Methodists, who easily out-classed according full autonomy to Egypt, the payment of annal tribute to him being redeemed by purchase.

The Corriere continues: "England who has never proclaimeed her sovereignty in Egypt, while accepting the irade, will make a communication to the powers reaffirming her military and economic occupation. In order to take away from the occupation any appearance of hostility, England will consent to the enlargement and transformation of the present Legislature Council into a law-making assembly and will negotiate immediately with the Powers in regard to the capitula

"Thus, by having known how t wait, England will have conquered Egypt with Egyptian money. Especially by liberating the country from Turkish vassalage, England hopes to gain the sympathies of the native classes, which still remain hostile."

To Abolish Official Scorer

The Montreal Herald says: "The lice of official scorer in the games of e National Hockey Association may e abolished next season, according to statement made by President Emnett Quinn.

The reason given is that the pubcation of names of goal scorers is aving a detrimental effect on hockey ince players are prone to be selfish to "hog" the puck and to attempt to to all the scoring themselves for the sake of seeing their names figuring among the top-notch goal-getters.

President Quinn declares that he disapproves of the practice, and since newspaper tabulation of the goals scored are made up from summaries supplied to the press at each game by the official scorers he may abolish the official scorer next season.

Much Loot Found

New York, Jan. 31 .- Gems worth many thousands of dollars, loot of two thieves who were cornered and killed in a revolver duel with the police last November were found this afternoon in a lock box in a downtown safety vault. Thousands of dollars worth of stocks and bonds and five life insurance policies were also crammed in the box. The box was rented by Henry Vogel and his wife. and it was there they stored their booty. Vogel and his wife were killed and a detective seriously wounded in a fight which ensued when the police ried to capture the pair. The key to the lock box was found in heir room but the box was not opened till this afternoon, when Mrs. Sidney Bernheimer procured a court order permitting her to do so. Among the gems she identified $4,000 worth as her property. The rest was taken to police headquarters. Seven $1,000 ounds, fifty-five shares of stock in various companies and the life in surance policies were claimed by Alfred J. Stern, from whom they were
