Horse Runs Away.

Last evening a horse and sleigh driven by Mr. Michael Power, and owned by Mr. Stewart, Manager of the Bank of Commerce, was coming down Adelaide Street, a dog ran in front of the horse and immediately bolted, frightening the driver about 100 yards before he could get clear. The animal went down Water Street at great speed and was stopped by the sleigh colliding with a pole opposite Smyth's. Fortunately no pedestrians were hurt. The driver, though somewhat shaken up, fortunately escaped serious injury. The animal, however, was not so fortunate as on examination it was found that the left hind leg was somewhat injured and had to be removed to the stables, being unable to walk.

Doing Their "Bit."

Dear Mr. Editor,—Please allow me space in your esteemed paper for a few words concerning the work of the L.O.A. at Englee. We are somewhat isolated from the rush of the busy world, but we are doing our little "bit" in trying to lay low the cruel Hun. Jan. 4th we held our parade, after which an entertainment was conducted. Hot dinner was served by the indefatigable ladies who always play a noble part in our social gatherings. The night was spent in speeches and singing after which a collection was taken, when men and women alike shelled their pockets, to help sustain the noble heroes who so willingly are laying down their lives in the cause of righteousness and liberty. The sum of $274.77 was realized. The meeting closed with tears and cheers while all present united in the National Anthem.

"Louvain."

Quite a large and representative gathering attended the lecture given in the Aula Maxima, St. Bonaventure's College, last evening by the Rev. Dr. Kitchin, who kept the audience spell bound for one hour and a half relating his sojourn (as an ecclesiastical student now eighteen years ago) in Louvain and comparing it with Louvain as it stands to-day—in ruins through the hands of those barbaric German soldiers, her beautiful Cathedral, University and Library all gone to ashes.

The learned Lecturer was introduced by the Hon. J. M. Kent and a vote of thanks was proposed by the same gentleman and carried by acclamation. Included in the audience was His Grace the Archbishop, Mr. McDermott, Mr. St. John (Torbay), Rev. A. P. Maher (St. Lawrence), Rev. Frs. Sheehan and Pippy (St. Patrick's), Christian Brothers (St. Francis), (St. Bonaventure's), (Mt. Cashel), and many prominent citizens.

A Perpetual War of Germs

In every human body there is continual strife between the forces of health and disease, while headaches, nervousness and frequent colds mean weakness and forerun sickness.

In changing seasons your system needs the oil-food in

Mr. Way had been for years, a member of the Methodist Church, and although being in a prolonged condition of poor health, yet he was generally found in his place at service on Sunday mornings, and he always took a part in supporting the cause to which he was devoted. His suffering has now come to an end, and he has gone to "the Home where the inhabitants never say they are sick." There are left to mourn their loss a wife, four sons, two daughters, three brothers and two sisters. Of the daughters, Miss Beatrice, on account of poor health, is spending the winter at her home. She has spent almost ten years at St. John's, filling important positions there, and has formed a large circle of friends, from many of whom have been received messages of sympathy and encouragement. A brother, Louis, is living at North Sydney, Cape Breton, and is a respected resident of that place. To all mourning relatives we extend heartfelt sympathy in the loss of one who was a kind father, a good citizen, and a humble Christian.

Your Boys and Girls.

In the winter when the weather is unfit for outdoor play, clay modeling is a very good way to interest and instruct children. An old tray, a smooth orange wood stick and another shaped like a knife, are all the tools needed. The knife shaped tool can be whittled from a thin piece of wood and then sandpapered smooth. Place the tray on a table and give the child wax and tools and a simple object, such as a potato, to copy.

Teach them to begin the work by taking small pieces of wax and working it with the fingers. Always build up the object in this way instead of taking a large lump of the material and cutting it down. It is best to give the child easy objects to copy until he gains confidence and becomes proficient. Occasionally let him make something original or from memory.

YOU NEVER CAN TELL

What may be the result of cold in a wound or skin injury. Cold very soon sets up inflammation and festering, and unless Zam-Buk is promptly applied blood-poison may follow. Sometimes even amputation proves necessary. Zam-Buk will safeguard you against such serious possibilities.

Miss Belle Grant, of Brasill Lake, N.S., writes: "I burned my hand badly and then accidentally caught cold in it. The pain I suffered was terrible and the wound was badly inflamed and festering. I tried different kinds of salves, but nothing brought relief. I was by this time suffering so that I could not sleep at nights, and I feared blood-poisoning was setting in."

"Zam-Buk was recommended to me, and I commenced applying it. Before long I experienced the greatest relief; it drew out all the inflammation, the pain was ended and I could see the sore place was gradually healing. Perseverance resulted in a complete cure. Zam-Buk is certainly a wonderful balm and should be in every home."

Zam-Buk is also best for eczema and all skin diseases, ringworm, running sores, ulcers, abscesses, pimples, boils, piles, cuts, etc. 50c. box, $ for $1.25. All dealers or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. Send 1c. stamp for postage on free trial box.

In Loving Memory

Of George Elliot, Happy Adventurer, Killed in Action.

Oh may we mourn for those we love,
A lad so brave and fair,
But he is gone to Heaven above
To meet us over there.

Away from friends he loved so well
Our soldier boy did go,
On fields of France where shot and shell
Did take our gallant boy.

His duty stirred, his spirits still,
And left his task, his gains, his all,
And fired his hope and nerved his will,
He rose responsive to the call.

Somewhere in France, far away,
He fills a hero's grave,
While he is sleeping, let us pray,
For He the strong to save.

A few short years of evil past,
Then we shall meet you there,
And we shall smile at last
When God is ever near.

And, oh, when in the hour of death,
I bow to Thy decree,
Jesus receive my parting breath,
Good Lord remember me.
