How Cameo is Carved.

The stone—onyx and sardonyx—on which cameos are carved is so plentiful on the Uruguay River, Brazil, that ships often take it away as ballast. Nevertheless, perfect pieces of large size are costly, a piece suitable for a large portal costing as much as $75.00. This stone is preferred for cameos because of its hardness and durability, and is suitable for such work owing to the fact that it comes in layers of contrasting color, as black and white and cream, or red and white. When the cut figure is sunk into the stone instead of being raised, the cutting is called an intaglio. The cost of these gems is due to the time and skill required in the work. Formerly a small gem might occupy an artist for a year or more, but with modern appliances the work can be done much more rapidly. Still the ancient work bears the palm for artistic excellence. The cutting is now done by holding the stone against a revolving drill, whose soft steel is hard enough to cut the stone. The utmost patience, caution, and delicate handling are required, as the slightest slip may be fatal to the work.

SHROPSHIRE MINERS RETURN.

LONDON, May 25. About the only new developments in the British miners' strike to-day was the return of some of the Shropshire miners to work at the old terms, pending settlement of the dispute.

USING THE KNIFE.

LONDON, May 25. All Government branches have been instructed imperatively to cut estimates for next year's supply service by twenty per cent. A circular issued by the Treasury to the various departments states that, as far as can now be seen, the ordinary revenue for 1922-23, even if taxation is remitted, is not likely to exceed £250,000,000. Interest and debt services will absorb £465,000,000. The current year's estimates for the supply aggregated £603,000,000.

WAR ON THE JORDAN.

JERUSALEM, May 25. Inhabitants of Transjordan are reported in revolt against the newly appointed ruler, Prince Zeid, son of King Hedjaz, and to have defeated the Prince's troops, killing 180 in a pitched battle. The insurgents, it is understood, desire to be governed by British Administration under High Commissioner Sir Herbert Samuel.

"HEROIC ECONOMICS" FRANCE'S SOLUTION, AND MUST BE NEWFOUNDLAND'S.

PARIS, May 25. France must borrow thirty-two billion francs to cover expenditures this year. M. Cheron, reporter of the Finance Committee informed the Senate yesterday. France faces what he described as a difficult but not impossible situation, if Germany meets her obligations regularly and France makes proper efforts. Discussing the deficit M. Cheron said, "It is impossible for these conditions to continue. The Budget must be balanced within two years, at latest, by heroic economics."

FRATRICIDE IN ARGENTINA.

BUENOS AIRES, May 25. Two persons were killed and several wounded in fighting here yesterday between Union and non-Union port workers.

IN IRELAND.

DUBLIN, May 25. One civilian was killed and two were wounded and nine captured when soldiers surprised a party destroying Ballycarthy Bridge, near Tralee to-day.

CROZIER'S SERIOUS CHARGES.

LONDON, May 25. Brigadier-General Crozier, who was commander of the Auxiliary Division of the Royal Irish Constabulary until last February, when he retired on account of disagreement with General Turner, over the question of punishment in certain cases, charged with looting Antrim, yesterday made a number of fresh accusations in an interview in the Daily News. He charged individual soldiers with robbing a Post Office disguised as Sinn Féiners, with murdering Father Griffin, and authorities with "squaring" witnesses who might have given unwelcome evidence.

THE OLD STORY.

BELFAST, May 25. Wholesale charges of intimidation and personation during balloting in Ulster for members of the new Northern Irish Parliament are being made by both Nationalists and Unionists.

QUIET IN BELFAST.

BELFAST, May 25. Belfast has returned to almost normal this morning after a night of wildest excitement. Reports indicate that many districts in Ulster were similarly affected.

ALEXANDRIA RIOTS.

CAIRO, May 25. Wire communication between this city and Alexandria has been stopped by the cutting of wires. A nervous atmosphere prevails. Military and police are patrolling the town.

Ethel Clayton's Beautiful Complexion

That splendid actress now appearing under the Paramount banner is famous for her beautiful complexion. She attributes her wonderful skin to the use of a simple toilet article called Derwillo. There is nothing like it for tan, freckles, shiny nose, sallowness, dark, rough skin. It takes the place of face powder, stays on better, as perspiration does not affect it, and it instantly beautifies the complexion. One application proves it. If you want a nice lily-white skin with rosy cheeks, get a bottle of Derwillo to-day; you will be delighted. Derwillo is sold at all up-to-date toilet counters. Be sure to read large announcement of Miss Clayton's soon to appear in this paper. It tells how to instantly have a beautiful complexion and a soft, white, velvety skin everyone "just loves to touch."

Fire Engine

as Bridal Coach.

A fire alarm sounded in Windsor, London, the other morning for an unusual purpose. Believing that they had to attend an outbreak, members of the brigade answered the call quickly, but discovered that the gong was a summons to the wedding of their chief officer, Mr. Harry Hall, and Miss Pounford. All the firemen put on their uniforms and helmets, and drove to Clewer Church on the new motor fire engine. After the wedding they formed an arch of axes outside the church, and then, with bells clanging joyously, proceeded to the bride's house, the newly married couple being given seats on the engine.

MINARD'S LINIMENT RELIEVES NEURALGIA.

The Best Kind of a Boy.

The scout
Doesn't pout.
He's a regular fellow;
He's no mollycoddle
At trifles to bellow;
He isn't a coward.
He isn't a cad.
But a scout.
In and out,
Is a fine-tempered lad.

A scout
Is no lout.
He is thoughtful for others—
Especially so for
The sisters and mothers.
He isn't a bully,
Whatever may hap,
But a scout.
Without doubt
Is a thoroughbred chap.

A scout
Doesn't flout.
The advice of the Master;
He turns from the trails that
May lead to disaster;
In ways that are sneaky
He fails to find joy;
For a scout
Is thorough.
The best kind of a boy!

Government Timber Deal.

At the second reading of the Bill to permit the exportation of timber for a special purpose, in the Upper House yesterday, Hon. Dr. Campbell informed the Council that the bill was intended to permit the exportation of a quantity of pine props cut during the past winter, under agreement with the Government by contractors in various portions of the colony. Permission was granted to cut some 52,000 cords. About 25 to 30 thousand cords were taken, which the contractors were to dispose of, but in the event of their failing to do so by June 1st, the Government guaranteed them $6.00 (not rounded). So far one contractor had reported to the department that he was not able to dispose of his cut of about 2,000 cords, and as the others may yet be heard from, it is necessary that the Government have legislation ready to meet the situation.

A Reflex of the Times.

The Imperial Tobacco factory, which has been working on short time this while back, will close down on Saturday for about one month, or until their surplus stock is disposed of. The closing of the Tobacco Factory is due to short sales, and is a reflex of the conditions of the country, which, indeed, is up against hard times when men forego their smoke. Remembering that we have a Reform Government it may be, however, that the people are getting real "good."

Personal.

Miss Mildred Rowe, late of Steer Bros. office, leaves by the S.S. Digby for Boston, where she will be married to Mr. Raymond Butt, late of the Royal Stores. When leaving the office, she was presented with a purse of gold by her employers and staff.

DISARMAMENT.

If all the nations would disarm, 'twould be a splendid thing, and we might live secure from harm and dance around and sing. How happy we should be to know that wars would come no more, that no new Hindenburg would go to splash around in gore. I thought, when war was at its height, that when the war was done, there would be left on earth no wight who'd want to pack a gun. I thought we'd had enough of granes, the war fans to deter, for all the world was sick of bones and death and blood and fur. Now while the nations all profess a strong desire for peace, they hoist the same old martial mace, and war spells never cease. "We'd dump our armament to-day," one monarch sadly yips, "but there's a king across the way, who's building countess ships. He's building guns and submarines to multiply his power, and we would surely spill the beans if we relaxed an hour." The king across the way remarks, "I can't disarm alone, for there are sundry royal sharks who'd like to lift my throne. I have to build my guns and boats if I would keep my throne; I do not fear for others' goats, but I would hold my own." And so the old, old game proceeds, and will till time is done, and this poor foolish planet spends no more around the sun.
