Mme. Patti has, after all, decided not to perform the dramatic version of "Caval-leria Rusticana" at Craig-y-Nos this sum-mer. She fully intends, however, to give it next year with the co-operation of Mr. Alexander Salvini. Lynch law is flourishing in Algeria. Not long ago an Arab who had assaulted a little girl near Constantine was chased and seized by some of his countrymen and was flung over a precipice to his death. In eighteen months eight wrongdoers have been shot for murder and robbery without the benefit of trial by jury.

The Brentwood (England) curate forbade a young woman to play the piano at a charity concert organized by Non-conformists. The criticisms of his course were very harsh, and the vicar thereupon preached a sermon in his defense, viewing the attacks on him as a sample of the inevitable persecution of the Church.

Native Christians are increasing in India, at least in the northwest province of Oude, for which we have statistics. There are 22,665 this year, against 13,264 at the last census. More than half belong to the Methodist Episcopal Church. The Church of England has only 5,013 and the Roman Catholics 1,916.

A dead gypsy was buried recently in Weissensee, near Berlin. The hearse was followed by gypsies playing fiddles or clashing cymbals, the oldest members of the clan beating tambourines. The burial was performed with the ordinary Catholic rites, but afterward the gypsies sacrificed a dog "tet the moon."

Therr was a novel development in the eight-hour movement in England the other day when the domestic servants at West Hartlepool turned out in a parade by way of a "demonstration to emphasize demands for shorter hours and a weekly half-holifor shorter hours and a weekly hall-boil-day." The young women marched through the streets of the town in regular military order, neatly dressed, with some shor of uniform, and carrying emblems of their calling, such as coal scuttles, flations, scrubbing brushes, and other kitchen utensils.
