Reported by A.M Hamilton & Son. Wednesday, June 6. WEEKLY REVIEW.

The weather has been so unsettled in this faction of the country during the past week that the receipts have fallen off to quite an extent in almost every line.

In consequence there has been a strong tone existing in many lines, the principal among them being oats, sales running from $1 66 to

There was very little of any other kind of grain came forward, except wheat. Sales of it were a shade lower, 92c to 95c being ruling closing values.

The quotations given for all other kinds of grain are based on law streceipts.

In the provision trade little or no changes Butter sold from 13c to 18c, according to quantity and make. Eggs sold at 6c to 11c per dozen, the latter being retail only.

Chickens were a shade easier, 50c to 70c per pair.

Lard was quiet and no difference in price from last week.

Meats were dull and very light trade was done at unchanged values.

Hides skins, tallow and wood were in good demand and steady in price, with no chauge since last week; the supply was good.

Surply of vegetables was good and of potatoes no difference can be seen. Potatoes sold from 75c to 90c by the life Hay was quiet and unchanged.	l ou	tside lues.	1

Londoners on Board the Texas.

The steamer Texas, which went aground on Monday night off Newfoundland, had two South London residents on board-Messrs. A. C. and A. R. Baker, sons of Chas. Baker. An item appeared in last Wednesday's ADVERTISER announcing their departure for Bristol on a visit to their grandfather. Mr. Joseph Lancaster, an employe of the McClary Manufacturing Company, at first intended going with them, but changed his mind at the last moment. He was on board the Sarnia when she was adrift last summer for five weeks. The telegraph dispatch announces that the passengers and all the crew were landed in safety. The steamer is a total

Women and the Franchise. A very large and enthusiastic gathering of women attended the meeting in Somerset Hall this morning with the object of laying plans for the carrying on of the women's suffrage campaign. Mrs. Ed-wards, Ottawa, occupied the chair. It was decided to circulate a petition to be signed by men only, and to be presented, as the women's petition has been already, to the Dominion House. The different temperance organizations of men will also be asked to present supplementary petitions from their organizations. Parlor meetings will be held and literature distributed. The debating societies in public and high schools and collegiates will also be asked to ventil-

The " Y" Conference. The "Y" conference opened this morning at 10 o'clock in the "Y" rooms, with Mrs. Williams, Dominion president of the W. C. T. U., in the chair. The rooms were crowded by interested young ladies, and many visitors who have been attending the W. C. T. U. convention were also present. Among the "Y.s" present from out of town were: Miss Cook, Toronto; Miss Faircloth, Miss Doyle, Owen Sound; Mrs. Taylorson, Sunderland, England; Miss Maddock, Guelph; Miss Pound, Brownsville; Miss Gibson, Brownsville; Miss Watson, Teeswater; Miss Rea, Ottawa. Miss Retta Jarvis acted as secretary. Highly satisactory reports were received from other 'Ys," and a paper of greeting was read by the local president, Miss Trebilcock. Miss Faircloth, Montreal, replied. A paper on Press and Purity" by Miss Agnew, Toronto, was read by Miss Rigsby, London. Miss Gunn, London, sang a very pretty solo. Miss Morphy accompanied. A paper on "Y' Work in Winnipeg," written by the Manitoba Provincial superintendent, was read by Miss Morphy. Miss Kirk-patrick reported on Y. M. C. A. work in London. The doll illustrative of physical culture and dress reform was then exhibited and discussion freely indulged in. Mrs. Taylorson led in prayer and the meeting adjourned.

HAILSTONE RECORDS BEATEN.

Pebbles and Frogs Found in Huge Chunks of Ice by Costa Ricans. A gentleman connected with Museo Nacional (National Museum), at San Jose, Costa Rica, in a private letter printed by the Atlanta Constitution, tells a graphic story of the wonderful hailstorm whi h recently visited the southwest coast of that | D. A. C. The teams are: Central American republic. His letter, in part, is as follows:

"The cloud came almost directly from the west and was blacker than the proverbial 'Egyptian darkness.' We are now well used to tropical storms, with their accompaniments of real thunder and lightning, something grander than the folks in old Missouri have ever seen or heard, but in this case it seemed a thousand squalls, hurricanes and cyclones combined in one. All of a sudden there was a terrible roaring and splashing in the bay near the camp. I have since thought that the only thing that it could be compared with would be a shower of bricks and cobble-stones falling into the ocean. We had hardly time to take tens of millions; we could stand a debt of shelter in an immense hollow grave when that portion of the cloud which was dumping its immense load of ice into the salty water veered to the northeast and crossed to the treeless tract of mountains lying over toward Hanfeta. It was not a hailstorm in the grand, true sense of the word-it was simply an awful precipitation of thousands of tons of ice from the clouds. Some of these lumps were not larger than one's fist, but the majority of them were larger than full sized building bricks, and one which buried itself in the sand near our camp kettle on the beach was a jagged, threecornered mass of ice weighing 23 pounds an hour and a half after the storm cloud had passed. As one of the boys afterward remarked: 'It seemed as though the cloud had been frozen solid to a depth of about knocked to pieces and thrown to the earth. But few of the ice chunks bore any resemblance to ordinary hailstones; all were of jugged and irregular form, the majority of the pieces containing some foreign substance. such as a ball of earth, wads of rotten leaves, sand, fish, and frog spawn, etc. The head of a dead sunfish was found in one piece and a half-dozen or a dozen of the ice slabs gathered up and put into onr water jar yielded two live and one dead frog, a mass of kelp, or seaweed, three small pebbles, a sea shell and some queer black seeds about the size of buckshot."

Lord Rosebery's Horse Ladas Wins the Derby.

His Youthful Prophecy-Great Enthusiasm on the Track-The Premier Cheered.

LONDON, June 6-Ladas won the Derby, Matchbox second, Reminder third.

RECORD-BREAKING ATTENDANCE. LONDON, June 6. - Derby day opened cold and damp, with a strong easterly wind. In spite of this unfavorable condition, and notwithstanding the comparative scarcity of conveyances in consequence of the strike of the cabmen, countless vehicles were on their way to Epsom Downs at daybreak, and the number increased as the day ad-

Every railway train throughout the forenoon was crowded with race goers, and it is estimated that to-day's attendance will far exceed previous records. In the Derby are Lord Rosebery's Ludas, Mr. Douglas' Galloping Dick, Lord Abington's Matchbox, Lord Bradford's Hornbeam, Lord Scarborough's Clwyd, the Duke of Westminster's Bullingdon, and the Canon's Reminder. The consensus of opinion is that, Wellington street, this morning, of Bright's | barring accidents, Ladas will win to a disease, after an illness of fifteen months. moral certainty. The betting this afternoon is 1,000 to 300 on Ladas.

MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT PRESENT. In spite of the refusal of the House of Commons to observe precedent and adjourn over Derby day, the attend-Stratford, Ont., in 1860, and with the ex ance of that body was so sparse at the opening of the sitting that many persons were constrained to ask who it was that voted against adjournment. Several of the ministerial leaders were constantly present, Prendergast, daughter of the late Edward but of the Conservatives on the front Prendergast, of Logan. The widew and a benches Mr. Balfour and Mr. Henry Matthews sat alone.

THE STAKES. The Derby stakes are 6,000 sovereigns, the winner to receive 5,000 sovereigns, the nominator of the winner 500 sovereigns, the owner of the second 300 severeigns and the owner of third 200 sovereigns.

This was the 116th Derby. It fulfills the English Fremier's prophecy made twenty years ago that he would marry the richest heiress in England, be Prime Minister and win the Derby. He did marry the heiress, is Prime Minister, and Ladas has won the Derby. He has already won the Two Thousand Guineas and New. market stakes this year.

The Derby was inaugurated in 1780, and named after Earl Derby.

AQUATIC. It is only fair to say that in Monday's boat race between Messrs. Dinnen and Beling, in which the former won, Mr. Dinnen rowed in a 28-pound shell and Mr. Beling in a 78-pound working boat, although that arrangement was concurred in at the time. Under equal conditions these two gentlemen should provide a very pretty race, and their friends would like to see them try it again. This fine sport should be developed in the city.

Hiscott.......Right fiela......Stein -What might have happened to the richest Province in the Dominion if any easy-going politician had had charge of its strong box ! What plunder there was for a gang! We have timber limits worth twenty or thirty millions as easily as Quebec. A politician of easy virtue would have lavished these millions on heelers and hangers-on, who, in return, would be enthusiastically voting him a god. THE ATTACKS ON PRINCIPAL GRANT BECAUSE HE SUPPORTS SIR OLIVER MOWAT. (Canada Presbyterian.)

"Woe unto you when all men speak well of you," is one of the woes that Rev. Principal Grant need not fear. It is rather hard for a clergyman to know how to act at an election time. If he says nothing and does not even vote, he will almost certainly incur the dislike or contempt of strong partisans an either side: and he is sure to bring upon himself hatred, or even persecution from one side or other if he dares to have or express an opinion on political matters and act upon it. The principal not only has opinions upon the present state of things in the Province politically, but has dared very frankly to express them, and what is worse, they are ikely to have a good deal of weight in the issue of the contest now going on. For this he has incurred the wrath of one of the rather notorious minor journals of this city, which from time to time has honored Principal Caven also with its diatribes. In this case, as usual, not having arguments, it takes to its more congenial work of calling names. Principal Grant is too well known especially as one who glories in being a Canadian, to be hurt by such exhibition of coarse malevolence. There are some journals of such a character that one would be ashamed to be commended by them, which it is an honor to have against one.
