Dr. Harvey was very indignant over he accident, especially as he has always been an advocate of a bylaw to punish the people who throw peelings on the sidewalk. The doctor said that he counted no less than twelve peel-ings in one block on his way home last night, and believed that people sometimes throw peels on the sidewalk with malicious intent. A bylaw against peelings in his opinion is just as neces sary for the public safety as any doguzzling ordinance.

Morganatic Marriages Are On the Increase Amongst European Royalty.

London, July 20. - It is a wellknown saying that "Cupid laughs at law," and it certainly appears to be justified in the case of royalties who marry for love rather state reasons Certain it is, says Pearson's Weekly that morganatic marriages are on the Take, for instance, the Grand Duke Nicholas of Russia, who was banished by the Czar to Tashkent, in Turkestan, because he fell in love with and married a daughter of the chief of police of Orenburg. His sacrifice was a failure as far as happines was concerned, for his marriage was a disappointment, and the prince fretted after the fuller life h had formerly had, and on his recall by the present Czar his health was found to have suffered severely.

The Grand Duke Paul of Russia, wh neld the rank of lieutenant-general and adjutant-general to the Czar, was de prived of his offices and banished f ten years on the occasion of his man riage with the Baroness Pistolkoff, th beautiful but not altogether excellent wife of one of the Grand Duke Vladimir's suite, who divorced her.
