"The Wolf" Holiday Attraction.
Monday "The Wolf" by Eugene Walter, will be the offering at the Grand matinee and night, headed by Edward Sloman and Miss Nell Cave. The piece has played a successful half-year engagement in New York, and a return this year, and one of four months' duration in Chicago. "The Wolf" has to do with the Canadian Hudson Bay territory. The hero is a French-Canadian. The cast is said to be one of dramatic excellence. The same big production used at the New York Lyric Theatre will be seen here. Seats selling. Mail orders now.

"St. Elmo" Next Tuesday.
Few novels have been more widely read in the last 40 years than "St. Elmo," a dramatization of which is to be presented at the Grand Tuesday night, Dec. 27. When the author, Augusta Evans-Wilson died a few months ago, she left an estate of $600,000. Over 75 per cent of this, it is said, represented her royalties on "St. Elmo." Mrs. Wilson was constantly besieged with offers to permit the book to be made into a stage story, but only once, it is understood, was she persuaded to allow a play from it to be presented. This was some years ago and exercising a woman's privilege she changed her mind, and the play was withdrawn. How it has been made into what sterling critics call an excellent play. Seats tomorrow.
