OTTAWA, June 28 .- (By Canadian Press) .- Dr. J. M. Swaine, Dominion ologist, when informed of the ruling of the United States Horticultura Board, preventing the export of vegetables to the United States from the sections of Southern Ontario infected by the European corn borer, said that the Canadian authorities had already taken action to prevent export of vege tables from the infected sectors. Wit regard to the statement alleged to have been made before the United States Board that Canada did not have sufficlent field agents to conduct a survey of the situation, Dr. Swaine said that the Dominion Department of Agricul-ture did have sufficient agents in the field, and that the situation was being handled in the most efficient manner

The whole list we ment in sentiment. The whole list was strong and gains were scored by a number of stocks. A small lot of Dominion Canners changed hands at 24½, as compared with 20, the best bid of yesterday. Canadian Pacific, after opening lower at 122, sold up to 123¾, on sales of 150. Part of this advance was lost, however, with the clyose at 123½, a net gain of ¾ from last night's close. Brazilian, after a strong opening lost the early gain, closing unchanged at 50½. Paper stocks were very quiet, with Abitibi changed at 25¾. Spanish River, in which no transactions were recorded, was quited at 51 bid, as compared with 81½ bid last night.

Oliver Towne says: "The whole nation is committed to publishing their wants in some form of advertising. For instance, if a man wants a maiden's heart, he sends her a valentine-that's advertising in a sentimental way. And if that same man is a good businessman and he wants to advertise in a serious way for a job, for a home, for help, to sell his ear, or anything else, he advertises in our Classified Columns-it's getting right into the heart of the proposition because the best circulation comes from this paper."
