Grisman had been in the employ of Richard Booth, 230 Wellington street, for thirty years.

At the time the accident occurred the victim was reaching with his brush, and leaning out from the ladder. The ladder slipped to one side along the eaves, and the painter fell to the ground. Grisman is well known in London, particularly in fraternal circles, being a member of Myrtle Lodge, Knights of Pythias. In addition to Falvian, his widow, in this city, he is survived by one daughter, who lives in Toronto. Grisman was attended by Dr.
