Lieut.-Col. G. H. Gillespie Inspects Fine City Corps Today.

PLATOON DRILL

Lieut.-Col. George. H. Gillespie inspector of public school and collegiate cadets for Military District No. 1, returned to the city on Wednesday evening after ten days spent inspecting various cadet corp throughout Western Ontario.

Today the inspecting officer viewed annual parades of five of London's public schools. Three companies paraded this morning at their respective schools and, looking neat and trim in their khaki uniforms, the lads were commended on their good showing Col. Gillespie stated that the inspection was satisfactory.

At Aberdeen School, Instructor oseph Willis was in charge, and here a well-trained corps of 65 cadets went through their drill shortly after 9 o'clock. Company Commander William Norton is the youthful leader of
