Dresden Seniors Nose Sarnia Out By 5-4 Score In Thirteen-Inning Thriller

THIRD GAME NOW NECESSARY TO DECIDE KENT LEAGUE TITLE

Dresden and Sarnia Senior Teams Will Meet in Chatham Today.

ERROR IS FACTOR

Special to The Advertiser. Dresden, Aug. 27.-Today the local seniors evened up the series for the Kent league championship when they defeated Sarnia here, 5 to 4, in a thrilling battle that went thirteen innings. In the thirteenth, after McMillan was safe on an error, he made second when the hurried throw went wild over the London first baseman's head. Bruce Wallace's single moved him along to third. Then Miller hit to Moorehouse, who elected Saginaw to make the play on the batter, but while he was doing it McMillan raced for home, beating the throw from first by a perfect slide. It was a fitting climax to a weilplayed tilt that included hard smacks on both sides, as well as stellar fielding. Detroit . Cleveland and it was anybody's game until Mc-Millan was over the plate with the deciding tally. Wallace, the local forkhand twirler, worked until the tenth frame, about evenly dividing the honors with Moorehouse, the Tunnel City with Moorehouse, the moundsman.

Hank Johnson relieved Wallace to Hark Johnson relieved Wallace to the start the eleventh inning, and he more than made up for the pasting the borderers gave him in Sarnia in the opening game of the series.

The third game to decide which of the teams will meet the London Braves in the next round of the O. B. A. A. senior play-offs will be staged in Chatham tomorrow.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL — BUSINESS OR SPORT?

-AS ANALYZED BY A GRADUATE MANAGER-

Virtually every American univer- of the boys make a little side money.

Washington.—A Londoner, who had heard of the evolution trial, wrote to the department of agriculture here to task if he would be permitted to bring a monkey into the United States, via Canada.

New Orleans.—Walter H. Cohen, negro comptroller of customs for the negro comptroller of customs for the negro comptroller. Sheriff Merseat. In this way, with the muffler open, one can stir up a lot of dust and noise, and also convey the idea that in using a Ford one is merely thumbing his nose at convention.

Rushing the Football Birds.

A graduate manager in a college which I know well, was called upon by his head scout.
"I'm stuck," said the scout. "I've got a big crop of yearlings coming up, all within two or three hundred miles of here. Some of the best prospects of years are among them, but we can't get at them. Every man on my staff is out on an important job, and here these boys are right at our door and nobody doing anything. They all need nursing. We ought to be sending in some of the fraterni-ties and begin rushing these birds." The scout was interrupted by frightful rending noise, as if some body was tearing a big sheet. They looked out the window, but found only a cloud of dust and a bad smell. "I've got the idea," said the grad-uate manager. "We'll organize taese stripped Ford maniacs!" They did. That was the beginning of the Uhlans. Here's how they work:
