INJUNCTION IS HUGE BLUFF

Liquor Dealers Looking For Loophole To Prevent Votes of People.

KEEP ON WORKING

In order that the public may understand the latest development in regard to the local option campaign, perhaps a few words of explanation might be given.

At the Council meeting on Tuesday evening Mayor Murray announced that Supreme Court writs had been served upon him calling upon the Town to show cause why the whole proceedings leading up to the vote on local option should not be quashed. The matter has been set down for hearing before the full bench at Fredericton on Tuesday next.

The grounds on which the order was granted by the Judge are: first, that the commissioner before whom the petition was made, failed to initial the petition, or in other words the genuineness of the petition was not proven; second that the declaration was not attached to the petition.

The following is the clause of the act in regard to the declaration:

The petition shall be accompanied by a solemn declaration proving the genuineness of the signatures, and also that the said petition is signed by at least one quarter of the ratepayers in such ward.

Now, as a matter of fact the petitions were accompanied by a solemn declaration, and the petitions from each ward were initialed by the commissioner A. B. and C. respectively; but whether the fact that the commissioner failed to put his own initial upon the petitions will nullify them or not is the question that will be thrusting out in court. While the liquor men are claiming that it does, it by no means follows that such is the case; that is part of their campaign. In fact it is simply an attempt to prevent the free expression of public opinion on the question of local option, and will not help their cause when it goes before the people.

There is ample justification for the belief that the court will not interfere in the matter, and that the vote will be taken as ordered, and in the meantime it would be unwise for the friends of local option to lay down their arms. These tactics, which are similar to those taken in St. John last year and are naturally expected, ought rather to stimulate all to greater efforts and a greater victory.

MOORE'S SETTLEMENT

Mr. S. W. Stuckhouse is in Moore's Settlement, holding a week of meetings.

Mr. Lawrence Murray and Gus Boothman spent Wednesday at the home of Mr. David Fraser.

Misses John Butler and Robert Adams of Metapedia spent Friday here.

Mr. R. Agjette attended the conference at Flatlands on Monday evening.

Miss Bessie Hall was the guest of Miss Maud Styles on Sunday.

R. G. Mann spent a couple of days here last week the guest of his sister, Mrs. Thomas Moore.

On Wednesday evening a number of young people met at the residence of Mr. Wm. Moore, where a very enjoyable time was spent, dancing being the chief amusement.

Misses John Lodge, Robert Lodge, and N. Fells of Rummymede were in the Settlement on Thursday.

Mr. Ted Moore, who has been in the employ of the Ferguson Bros., has returned home.

George Sharp of Des Side, passed through here today enroute for Campbellton.

J. P. Henry went to Cascapedia on Wednesday.

COUNCIL WILL DEFEND CASE AT FREDERICTON

Town Solicitors Authorized to Appear and Defend Case on Tuesday Next--New Trustees.

GREY CHARGES DROPPED

A meeting of the Town Council was held Tuesday evening, Mayor Murray in the chair.

Tenders were submitted for the supplies required for the Water & Sewerage department for the year, and referred to the committee for consideration and report.

His Worship the Mayor, announced that writs had been served upon him before the full bench at Fredericton next Tuesday all proceedings in the local option vote with a view of having them quashed.

The Town Solicitors were instructed to appear and defend and given power to engage counsel if necessary.
Jas Hunt was granted a trucking license for ensuing year.

Town Solicitor McKenzie recommended the acceptance by the town of a deed and plan from Margaret E.
Treman and others of an extension to Prince William Street, and a certified running east and west, and parallel to Stanley Street East, and through the McMillan property.

On motion said streets were named Prince William and Arran respectively.

The Town Solicitor reported on the matter of the Gray charges against Chief Crawford. He stated that the first charge with reference to Liquor License Inspectorship was a matter for the provincial authorities to take up. On the second charge the Council could proceed to investigate, but as they had no power to compel the attendance of witnesses and Gray had expressed a wish to have charges withdrawn, the Council would be considerably embarrassed in the matter.

The following appointments to the Board of School Trustees were made:
D. F. Graham, in room of A. Mc Donald, whose term of office has expired.

John T. Vautour, re-appointed.
Mrs. Cassie Andrew in room of Mrs. Mina Dunsan, whose term of office has expired.

Bryan Annette was appointed as Building Inspector, to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of J. A. P.
Bulman.

Council adjourned.

Every family and especially those who reside in the country should be provided at all times with a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment. There is no telling when it may be wanted in case of an accident or emergency. It is most excellent in all cases of rheumatism, sprains and bruises. Sold by all druggists.

Those Canadian excursionists who use the new immigration regulations require that incoming immigrants shall each be able to show $25 in gold coin of the realm.

Mr. O. LeBlanc paid a visit here this week.

Mr. P. Alatin and sister Lena, were visiting friends here.

Edmund Benard spent a few days at Maria last week.

Mr. S. Verge, who has been visiting friends here has returned home.
Miss Maggie Benard of Maria was the guest of Mr. L. Bujold last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Bouffreau are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a baby girl.

LOCAL OPTION FOR PROTECTION

Banish the Saloons and Protect the Boys the Policy of Temperance Workers.

SOME INTERESTING FIGURES

On Tuesday, the ratepayers of Cam-whether or not they wish the saloon to continue in operation in our town.

That the saloon is an enemy to society, a breeder of disease and inhumanity in the home, the cause of ruin to many a man's prospects in life, and even the means of destruction of both the bodies and souls of men, are facts that are generally admitted by all fair-minded men, but there are some who from purely mercenary and selfish motives will argue that the saloon has its place in society, and it is with this class that we wish to deal.

In the first place there are some men who, say that they cannot give up the saloon because of the hospitility and friendliness of the saloon-keeper. This is perhaps natural in some instances, but a very dangerous attitude to take, as will appear on reflection. If in your good feeling for the saloon keeper, the saloon is given full liberty to degrade your boy and bring about his ruin (and it is just as likely to be your boy as anyone else's) would you still vote for the saloon. Surely not. Is your boy's welfare to be the price of the friendship of the saloon keeper?

If so, then of all men you are the most miserable and contemptible.

One of the stock arguments used by the opponents of local option is that it kills business, hampers trade, and utterly ruins all commercial enterprises. Indeed they point a picture of blue ruin and make the usual lamentation that it will be necessary to move to some other town to escape starvation.

This cable argument appeals to some men whose judgment in other matters is the best; men who, if they but gave the matter a little thought, would at once see that the argument is not substantiated by facts. However, let us consider the question in a practical way. The first question that presents itself is:

"What is there about the saloon that has such a wonderful effect on general trade conditions?" Does it manufacture anything? Does it build up any industry or foster any commercial enterprise? Is it conducted on the co-operative plan whereby its patrons share in the revenue or earnings? True, it manufactures drunkards, it fosters crime, it is the cause of building and maintaining to a very large extent our jails and asylums and then the burden is thrust upon the people in a co-operative taxation. But this is another story.

Let us try to arrive at some idea of the amount of money taken over the bars of the saloons. Some of the saloons do a bigger business than others, and in order to be as fair as possible we have divided them into three classes as follows:

3 saloons earning $70 per day for 299 days.

3 saloons at $50 per day.

3 saloons at $30 per day.

or $27 per head on basis of 5,000 population.

Against this we have the amount expended by the saloons in conducting their business, as follows: Trunking, say $1 per week for each of the 9 saloons.

Salaries of 9 bartenders at say $700 per year.

Light, heat and other incidents.

Town's proportion of liquor license.

The above figures are considered altogether too conservative and give the saloon a very large margin in its favor. In fact, it was the proud boast of a saloon man during the dull season in February that the sales of this bar averaged over $200 per day.
On some special occasions the figures have been known to reach nearly $500 per day. And yet the howl is set up that business will be ruined if this large stream of money were diverted to the legitimate channels of trade. Could anything be more ridiculous. What is the insignificant sum of $850 or if you think that is too low, say $25,000, if you like, compared to $135,000. What have those who have spent this money got in return for it? A weakened constitution, a blasted home, a wrecked life, an ill-fed and ill-clad family; perhaps a drunkard's grave. On the sadness of it, that men will spend their money for that, when they can bread.

Suppose that this amount of money were spent each week in the manufacture of boots and shoes or some other industry. What a different store there would be to tell. Any man of common sense can follow out the story for himself.

But, says some one, if we adopt local option the farmers from the outlying districts will not come to Campbellton with their produce, and we will lose their trade. They will go to some other place where they can get their supplies of liquor.

This is a lie! on the farmers of this country. They are a class, not looking for liquor, but for the best prices for their produce. If defied, they would rather come to a town where there is no drunkenness and no open bars to entice their boys into the snare of the fowler; where their wives and daughters would not be looked by those under the influence of liquor and would not hear the vile and obscene language sometimes used. Local option would be welcomed by the farmers and probably more business would be done here by them under local option than heretofore.

Voters of Campbellton, be men!
Vote for local option on the 15th and thus help to make our town more prosperous by saving the money that now goes to waste and to enrich the saloon keeper.

There was a time, we believe, when the women instead of wearing slipschemers, sculpers, and bowie knives in their hats wore bonnets and held them on with ribbons.
