Steamer's Crew Battles Waves
for Forty Hours Till Aid Comes

Aerial view of the waves pounding the steamer Whitby after it had gone ashore off the cliffs of New Zealand and had broken in half. The photo was taken from the branch of a tree on the rocky cliff.

For forty long hours the crew of the steamer Whitby battled the waves, but without success because of the lack of wireless apparatus. For nearly two days rescuers tried to reach the dis-ly decorated with cut flowers, potted plants and golden glow. The color scheme in the dining-room consisted of flame and mauve sweet peas. The door was attended by Miss Georgie Miller, while Miss Miss McDonald ushered. Mrs. W. G. Mott cut the tea and Mrs. Hubert Henderson, Misses Geraldine Humble, (Truro), Blanche Crockett, Helen Crockett and Nan Wetmore assisted in serving, with Mrs. C. M. Snow and Miss Ada Wyers to replenish. Mrs. J. Wesley McDonald served the punch. Miss Greta Metzler presided at the piano and rendered very pleasing selections during the afternoon.

Miss Elsie Currie of Campbellton, N. B., who arrived in Ottawa last evening to be the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. W. Woodside, will remain for the winter months.—Ottawa Citizen.

Mr. Walter Sargeant of Dorchester, spent the holiday in town the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Sargeant.

Mr. William Gremley is visiting friends in Moncton and St. John.

Elemental Necessities.
The Worthy Bishop (examining class of small boys on the catechism)—Now, can any one tell me the two elements necessary to baptism?
A Small Youth—Yessir. Water and—
The Worthy Bishop (indulgently)—Water and what else?
(A silence).
A Still Smaller Voice—Please, sir, a baby.

Customer—"Waiter, a little bird told me this coffee was not strained?"
Waiter—"A little bird, sir?"
Customer—"Yes, it swallow."

At the Point.
"Fixing your car?" asked the passerby as a grumpy man crawled out from under an automobile.
"No," responded the grumpy one with a withering look, "Merely plugging in oil."
