igorous Attack By Mr. Meredith-Tren chant Replies by the Attorney-General and Mr. Ross-Despoiling the Univer-sity-Division at Midnight-The Protection of Game.

The Attorney-General's bill to amend the Campbell (Algm), Campbell(D'rh'm). law relating to mortmain and charitable Clanc ses was the first to be considered by the Glence Legislature yesterday. Mr. Meredith ob-jected to the clause which allowed persons Hammell. to make a testament within six months be-fore death. It was a well-known fact that Iudson. Wylie. persons just before death were often unduly nfluenced in making their wills by the friends of charitable institutions. The bill, however, Allan.

Mr. Mowat's bill to further amend the Mr. Mowat's bill to further amend the law respecting mortgages and sales of per-isonal property was opposed by Mr. Meredith Dr. and Mr. Sol. White. Mr. Meredith thought that ordinary creditors ought to be put beam exactly the same footing as creditors having gudgments. Mr. White said that the bill did not follow the established precedents and would upset the present arrangements be-tween debtor and creditors. This bill was Of not proceeded with, but was referred back. The Housawent back intofommittee to con-sider Mr. Harcourt's bill: To provide for the payment of succession duties in certain cases. A few amendments were made at the mover's own suggestion and the bill W
