

Thanksgiving Day.

The country's annual Thanksgiving Day is set apart for this week. The fact that such a day exists points to an underlying faith in our people that there is a Being "within the shadow" keeping watch over affairs temporal. To the man who believes in the Divine ordering of things, nothing "useless is or low," but everything wheels into being at its proper place.

The farmer who thoroughly believes in this theory is no fatalist nor unprogressive drifter. He sees himself a part of the great mechanism of the universe—a working necessary partner, honored with the associate direction of things and recompensed by the working out of the wisdom that grows the wheat, paints the northern sky or sustains the animal world for man's use.

Ingratitude in the abstract, is indeed, despised by all men. Man normally, feels his thanks to the Giver, which feeling takes sundry forms of expression. He is indeed a poor man and a worse farmer, who finds in nature's generous treatment of Canada nothing praiseworthy. The stockman as he looks at the sleek Shorthorn calves, the fruit grower garnering his ripe, red fruits; the dairyman admiring the dainty Ayrshires; the shepherd with the Shropshire lambs on the hillside; the wife in the farm's cosy quarters—all may feel the thanks that they can but poorly express. But let this sentiment play on Thursday. It is the right kind.—World.

The Farmers' Unique Place.

With financial houses tumbling down; with stockholders shivering in their boots, the splendid isolation of the farmer through all the panicky rumors of to-day, stands unique. He has his acres, his living and his capital. These do not depreciate fifty per cent. to-day and thereby cause a failure. He is on the rock of safety because his money is invested in true values. For, after all, what is property? If there is any stability in values, the farmer has the big end of the stick.

True wealth is measured everytime by ability and he who has the means to succor his fellow man with the necessities of life has the real wealth of the world at his command. Thus it is that the life-sustaining goods from the farm, with the means at hand for their increase, make the farmer a truly wealthy man. "Princes and lords are but the breath of kings," writes one who knows, and wealth that is measured by associated values is made and destroyed by a breath.

These facts of the real values of an agricultural life on the good Ontario farms ought to be impressed upon the young man to-day as never before. Ontario farm life is on a solid basis. There is not a great deal of inflated values in agricultural possessions. There is not an element of speculative make-up in her land and farm securities. It is even better than the west, where many people are rich because of their estimated land values.

The security of the farmer against allcomers and his happiness under all movements of values is certainly unique.—World.

Boiler Explosion Near Newbury.

The boiler of Engine No. 446 on the Grand Trunk accommodation from Detroit, due in London at 11 o'clock, exploded two miles east of Newbury at 11.04 Tuesday night and Engineer R. Rutherford, of 774 King street, London, was killed, and Fireman J. Robertson, of 424 Ontario street, injured. Thirteen passengers on the train escaped serious injury. So far as is known Conductor McAuliffe, brakeman A. McCallum and Baggageman S. Finch, all of London, were not injured. A medical special left London at 11.59. The special car of railway commissioners was attached to the train. The accident occurred while the engine was making fair speed along a straight stretch of track and came without warning. The engine crew had no warning and it is believed that Mr. Rutherford was instantly killed.

Want Prisoners' Records.

It has long been alleged that prisoners have been allowed out on parole and pardoned who, if the truth had been known concerning their past records would have been retained in prison. Accordingly, copies of the following letter have been sent to all the members of the Chief Constables' Association of Canada:—

"In order that the Department of Justice may not be misled by incorrect statements regarding the previous record and character of criminals, not infrequently made in applications and petitions for parole or pardon, you are requested to send promptly in future to Mr. W. P. Fertile Land in the Far North.

Edmonton, Oct. 26.—Tales of a prairie country of surpassing richness, where there is sunlight twenty hours out of twenty-four hours, which is unsurpassed for growing oats, rye and barley, and where the finest cattle in the world may be raised, have come down from the country far north of Edmonton. The men who are the conveyors of the information are James Murray, of Minneapolis, and J. Ralston, of Ayrshire, Scotland, who have arrived in Edmonton after a long and trying journey from the Poucepou or Pine River district, where they went early in the spring with cattle and provisions.

"The soil I believe to be the finest in America," said Mr. Murray. "The only trouble is lack of transportation. A man could take cattle there, raise them to be among the finest in the world, but when he makes up his mind to sell, he has to bring them over a terribly hard trail to Edmonton, and when they get there, even if there was a market, they are practically unfit for sale. I presume the railroad being built and the packing plant now being erected will to a great extent do away with this trouble, but were the Government to put in a good road—not a trail, but a road—it would build the country up faster than anything else."

What Camera Disclosed in Local Option Town.

Chatham, Oct. 28.—Photographs taken on the scene of action with play an important part in the action which the Grand Trunk Railway will shortly take against men accused of stealing whiskey from the wrecked car near Thamesville.

It appears that a village camera fiend made of the opportunity to get some good snaps of the wreck and incidentally of the men who were stealing the whiskey from the wrecked car. All of the pictures turned out particularly good, and the photographer for a few days could not make them fast enough for the demand.

One of them depicted a canny old Scotchman holding a pail under one of the leaks in the car with a broad smile. These pictures were sent broadcast through the country on souvenir postal cards and otherwise till eventually some of the railway detectives who were sent to investigate the whiskey stealing got into possession of a number of them.

They also found the boy who was hired by the celebrants to hand the whiskey bottles from the car, and between his evidence and the pictures they secured a pretty good story.

The result is that eighteen informations have been laid against prominent Thamesville people, charging them with stealing liquor from the railway premises.

Eloped to Sarnia.

Windsor, Oct. 24.—Having been denied admission to her home after returning late Saturday night, Miss Hazel Oliver, a Bell Telephone operator, eloped with A. E. Mallard, and was married Monday in Sarnia by Rev. J. H. Oliver.

The newly-wedded couple notified the bride's parents here of what had occurred and were invited to return. They have now arrived and have been forgiven. For the present they are stopping with the bride's parents. The groom is a Detroit druggist, but formerly resided in Watford.

The first Copper.

Ottawa, Oct. 26.—The first copper rolled in the new branch of the Royal Mint at Ottawa is now in the possession of Hon. Sydney Fisher, who watched on Thursday a trial start to the costly stamping and rolling machinery recently installed. It has been hoped that work on the Mint would have been sufficiently advanced to allow of a formal opening on November 9, the King's birthday, but the idea has now been abandoned and it is likely that it will be close on the new year before operations can officially be begun.

IF ROOSEVELT RUNS AGAIN.

Then William Jennings Bryan Will Step Aside.

New York, Oct. 25.—A despatch to The Herald from Troy, N. Y., says: "It can be asserted upon unquestionable authority that William J. Bryan's candidacy for Democratic presidential nomination is now almost wholly contingent upon what President Roosevelt will do about the third-term movement. If the president yields to the insistent demands to accept the Republican nomination for another term, Mr. Bryan will step aside and permit the leadership of his party to be placed in other hands than his."
