GOT THE BROWNS MIXED

There were two Browns in the village, both fishermen. One lost his wife and the other lost his boat at about the same time.

The vicar's wife called, as she supposed on the widower, but really upon the Brown whose boat had gone down.

"I'm sorry to hear of your great loss," she said.

"Oh, it ain't much matter," was the philosophical reply: "she wasn't up to much."

"Indeed!" said the surprised lady.

"Yes," continued Brown, "she was a rickety old thing, I offered her to my mate, but he wouldn't have her. I've had my eye on another for some time."

And then the outraged woman fled.

PERHAPS IT WON'T

PHILOSOPHERS—The kind that are always talking the joy out of life—tell us that because sun yesterday is no logical reason for predicting it will be up bright and early tomorrow morning. Talk like that gives us a momentary chill. Perhaps the sun won't rise! But we still remember to set the alarm clock as usual. It's a pretty good hunch that we will have daylight tomorrow and it's a better hunch that the Gem Theatre, Lawrence town, has a bang up show for Saturday and Monday Next. Special show Thursday, November 4
