JUNE EXAMINATION, 1882. Admission to High Schools.

FOURTH BOOK AND SPELLING.

1. At length the hour of his return came ; be arrived in Germany at the time when Varus was draining it of its resources, and heavily oppressing the people. Hermann concealed his intentions, and sought the favour and friendship of Varus, in which he was perfectly successful. Doubtless he considered it quite fair to meet force with cunning, and to oppose dissimulation with Varus, at that time, did exactly tyranny. the same thing as Napoleon has done in our He pressed German troops into his day. army, and endeavoured to subdue one German people by another. Hermann, with other princes, entered his service without hesitation; and the former exhibited such an appearance of genuine zeal that he won the confidence of Varus, was made a Roman citizen, and had the dignity of a Roman knight conferred upon him. In secret he was preparing for the destruction of the enemies of his country.
