THE Rev. John Woodward, LL.D., Chaplain of the Order of S. John of Jerusalem, Rector of S. Mary's, Montrose, Scotland, for many years, died recently. Dr. Woodward was a distinguished Antiquarian, and especially eminent in Heraldry, on which subject his works are far advanced beyond any hitherto printed. Their value may be appreciated by the circumstance that wishing to obtain a copy of one of his own books a few months after it had been published, he found that it was already out of print, and could only be bought second-hand for two or three times the original price. His general treatise on Heraldry was published in 1892, and a second edition in 1896. In the latter he thought proper to make a brief reference to the heraldic work of the editor of this journal.
