Mr. W. A. Wisco, Westport, writes: "I wish to inform you of the wonderful results which followed the use of Northrop and Lyman's Kidney and Liver Oil and Hypophosphates of Lime and Soda. A cough of six months standing had reduced me to such an extent that I was unable to do any work. Many remedies without effect. At 11:30 I used this Kuratol, and before three bottles were used I am glad to say I was restored to perfect health."

THE SABBATH SCHOOL

Teacher's Companion.

BY REV. JOHN McEWEEN,

The Teacher and Senior Scholar's Companion to the Old Testament Series of the International Lessons, beginning with the Book of Genesis, on the first Sabbath of July, is now ready. This book will be found to meet a felt want in the International System of S.S. Lessons. It presents the entire Book of Scripture in a connected and progressive form—linking up the dropped links of connection between the lessons. It has a Normal Class Exercise on Bible Investigation, illustrated by the Book of Genesis. Price 15 cents per copy, or $1.00 per dozen. Sent on any address, post free, on receipt of price.

Mr. Peter Vermetty, Hochelaga, P.Q., writes: "Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil cured me of Rheumatism after I tried many medicines to no purpose. It is a good medicine. Just think of a man who has the twinges of rheumatism, who has pains in the joints of his limbs—you can check a couple and feel braced or broken skin, with a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil, costing only 25 cents."

FOR THE KIDNEYS, LIVER & URINARY ORGANS THE BEST BLOOD PURIFIER.

There is only one way by which any disease can be cured, and that is by removing the cause—whatever it may be. The great medical authorities of the day declare that nearly every disease is caused by deranged kidneys or liver. To restore these therefore is the only way by which health can be secured. Here is where WARNER'S SAFE CURE has shown its great reputation. It acts directly upon the kidneys and liver, and by placing them in a healthy condition drives disease and pain from the system. For all Kidney, Liver and Urinary troubles; for the distressing disorders of women; for Malaria, and physical troubles generally, this great remedy has no equal. Beware of impostors, imitations and concoctions said to be just as good. For Diabetes ask for WARNER'S SAFE DIABETES CURE. For sale by all dealers.

Words of the Wise.

THE starting point of many a love match The old man's boot.

WHY are bores like trees? Because we love them best when they leave.

WE hear a good deal about the "rage for speculation;" but the rage generally comes after the speculation.

A WIT being asked, on the failure of a bank, "Were you not upset?" replied, "No, I only lost my balance."

WHAT a curious language English is! A man a late when he is dead and gone, and a train is late when it hasn't come.

A HOUSEKEEPER asks: "What is the simplest way to keep jelly from moulding on top?" Shut a small boy up in the pantry for a few minutes.

"I WOULD like scolloped oysters," she remarked. He answered, meaning to be funny, "I don't know how to sclop oysters." "Then bias some," said she.

A FRENCH lady, during the siege of Paris, driven by famine to eat her pet dog, as she was finishing exclaimed, "Poor thing, how he would have enjoyed picking these bones!"

ARTIST (on summer tour): "Ah! Madame, might I have the pleasure of painting your picturesque little cottage?" Country dame: "Wa'al, I don't know. Guess ye can. Ye might whitewash the fence, too, if ye like."

A YOUNG blood, afflicted with a horrible stultor, enters an English pharmacy. "I wa-wa-want," says he, "some p-p-p-pills of ip-ip-ip-ip." "Hurrh!" cries the impatient clerk, and the blood fleets.

"DID that lady take umbrage?" said the proprietor of a Harlem store to his clerk who had just had a wordy dispute with a customer. "Oh, no. She took ten yards of turkey red calico, and wanted buttons to match."

"I DON'T want no rubbish, no fine sentiments, if you please," said the widow, who was asked what kind of an epitaph she desired for her late husband's tombstone. "Let it be short and simple. Something like this: 'William Johnson, aged 75 years. The good die young.'"

A VISITOR in the country seeing a very old peasant woman dozing at her cottage door asks a little boy of six or seven, who happens to be playing near by, how old the is. "I can't say, sir," replies the child politely; "but she must be very old. She has been here ever since I can remember."

HE (to his fiancée): "I say, Julia, old girl, have you ever noticed this?" She (who hates to have people talk to her when she is reading): "No." He: "What? Not see this sweet thing in china? She (with enthusiasm): "Oh! in china? What is it?" He: "Sugar." (She breaks the engagement.)

WHEN old Mrs. Bunsby had got through reading in the paper an account of the last great fire, she raised her spectacles from her eyes to the top of her head, and remarked, "If the firemen would wear the genuine home-kn stockings, such as we make and wear in the country, they wouldn't be a bit stin' of their hoze at every fire."

"I HAVE been married for several weeks, and my husband and I cannot decide whether we should retain our old love letters or burn them. What would you advise?" Mrs. C.: "Put them in a pasteboard box in the servant girl's room. A supply of old love letters has been known to keep a girl contented in one place for three months at a time."

ON the façade of the principal hotel in Vichy, France, is the announcement: "All languages spoken here." A tourist entering places the host with English, Spanish, Russian, etc. Seeing that the good fellow understands never a word, he inquires who it is in the hotel who speaks every tongue. The mine host with dignity responds: "The travellers, sir."

"THERE'S something about your daughter," Mr. Wanghope said, reflectively, "there's something about your daughter." "Yes," said old Mr. Thistlepod, "there is; I had noticed it myself. It comes every night at eight o'clock, and it doesn't get away usually till about eleven o'clock, and some of these evenings I am going to lift it all the way from the front parlour to the stable gate, and see what there's in it."

Could Hardly Stand on Her Feet Dr. R. V. France, Buffalo, N. Y.: "Dear Sir— I want to tell you what your medicine has done for me. Before taking you 'Favourable Description' I could hardly stand on my feet, but by following your advice, I am perfectly cured. The 'Favourable Description' is a wonderful medicine for all kinds of nervous females. I cannot express how thankful I am to you for your advice. Yours truly, Mrs. CORNELIA ALLISON, Peosta, Ia."
