

Nelson column, Trafalgar Square, for which he received the commission from the Government in 1859, were placed on the pedestals and uncovered Jan. 31, 1867.

COUNT MAURICE ADOLPHE CHARLES DE FLAVIGNY,

Born December 3, 1799, died on the 10th inst., in Paris. He was a warm adherent of Louis Philippe, and was created by him a Peer of France, in 1841. He retired to private life in the same year, on the downfall of that Monarch, but was elected, the following year, a Deputy for the Department of Indre-et-Loire. He represented the same Department in the Corps Legislatif after the coup d'état of December, 1851, and became a supporter of the Empire. Up to 1863, he was a Government Candidate, but the aid of the administration having been withdrawn, he was at that time defeated. In 1847, he was promoted to the rank of officer of the Legion of Honor, and during the Franco-German war took an active part in procuring aid for the wounded, and assisted in systematising the distribution of the supplies sent from the different countries for the relief of the distressed.

REV. ROBERT CANDLISH D. D.,

The great Scottish preacher died (as per telegram) at midnight on Sunday 19th inst. Dr. Candlish was born in Edinburgh, March 23, 1807. He was educated at Glasgow University, and was afterwards a tutor at Eton. In 1828 he was licensed as a preacher by the Presbytery of Glasgow, and the year following was appointed minister of St. Andrew's Church in that city. His next charge was Bonhill, in the Vale of Leven, from which he removed, in 1839, to St. George's Church, Edinburgh. Upon the death of Dr. Chalmers, 1847, Dr. Candlish was appointed to the Chair of Divinity, in New College, and when Dr. Cunningham died, he was made Principal of that institution.

The Gen'l R. E. Lee Monument.

The colossal monument to the memory of Gen'l Lee which is now rapidly being constructed under the direction and skill of Prof. Volentine, will, when completed, be the greatest triumph of art and mechanical skill ever produced in this country. The structure will be surmounted by a reclining figure of Gen'l Lee enveloped in his military cloak. The form will be finely carved in marble, and the expression of countenance rendered with life-like correctness. In order to complete this grand monument at the earliest possible day, the Executive Committee of the Lee Memorial Association, of Lexington, Va., which is composed of such distinguished men as Gen'l Pendleton, Gen'l Terry, Hon. Wm. McLaughlin, Col. Preston, Col. Jas. K. Edmondson, Chas. Davidson, and others, have authorized the publication and sale of a perfect life size steel engraved portrait of Gen'l Lee. The proceeds of its sale to be applied in furtherance of the object of this Association, namely: to the erection of a monument to the memory of Gen'l R. E. Lee, at the Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va. The portrait will be sold only by subscription, through regular authorized agents, and every subscriber will receive a certificate signed by the Secretary and Chairman of the Lee Memorial Association. We commend this portrait to the public, and hope some good energetic man will secure the agency in this section in order to help on the good work. Messrs. W. W. Bostwick & Co., Nos. 177 & 179 West Fourth Street, Cincinnati, Ohio, have been constituted and appointed General Managers of Agencies, and any communication addressed to them, for circulars, terms, and certificates, will receive prompt attention.
