

THE SANITARY JOURNAL.

DEVOTED TO

Public Health and Preventive Medicine.

EDITED BY

EDWARD PLAYTER, M.D.

SALUS POPULI SUPREMA EST LEX.

CONTENTS.

ORIGINAL COMMUNICATIONS.		EDITORIAL.
	PAGE.		PAGE.
Pestilential Condition of the Toronto Lunatic Asylum in 1853. By Jos. Workman, M.D.	65	Typhoid Fever	80
Milk—The Toronto Supply	69	Examination of Milk	91
Practical Notes and Extracts on Hygiene. By the Editor	72
SELECTIONS.		ANNOTATIONS.
Hygienic Effects of the Warm Bath	66	Sanitary Matters in India	93
Are Diseases of Childhood Avoidable	69	Cramming and Over-Work at School	94
Natural Euthanasia	81	Dress Reform	94
Criminal Law and Mental Pathology	85	Mortality in Montreal	95
Typhoid Attributed to Vaccination	86	Pathology of Small-pox	99
Infant Feeding and Infant Mortality	87	The Bridge Rural Sanitary Authority	95
Force and Work	88	Another State Board of Health	98
Milk and the Dissemination of Fever	88	To Correspondents	93
		Subscriptions Received	97
		Turkish Baths	97
		Notices, &c., &c.	97

PUBLISHED MONTHLY,

TERMS: TWO DOLLARS PER ANNUM IN ADVANCE,

Two Copies, 1 Year, $3.50; Three Copies, 1 Year, $5.00.

Single Copy, Twenty Cents.