THE FEAR OF RUSSIA

By PROF. A. W. CRAWFORD

An admirable and timely article showing that Russia, "the one great despotism," may yet, in friendship with Britain and France, bear a great share in human progress and in the emancipation of mankind and make some notable additions to the great temple of liberty.

THE INFLUENCE OF ITALY ON BRITISH THOUGHT AND LIFE

By PROF. D. FRASER HARRIS

In which it is shown that, even to-day, the influence of Italy on Great Britain is not confined to waiters, marble angels, table-tops, street pianolas, ice cream, and products for Italian warehousemen.

FAMOUS CANADIAN TRIALS

George Brown for Contempt of Court.

By JOHN LEWIS

The author of "George Brown" in the "Makers of Canada" series here gives a striking account of the trial of the great reform leader for contempt of court following an editorial in The Globe berating Mr. Justice Wilson.

There will be as well a good selection of interesting articles and short stories.
