

NEWS AND NOTES.

SILENT INFLUENCES

It is the bubbling spring which flows gently, the little rivulet which glides through the meadows, and which runs along day and night by the farmhouse, that is useful, rather than the swollen flood or warring cataract. Niagara excites our wonder, and we stand amazed at the power and greatness of God there, as he "pours it from the hollow of his hand." But one Niagara is enough for the continent or world; while the same world requires thousands and tens of thousands of silver fountains and gently flowing rivulets, that water every farm and meadow, and every garden, and that shall flow on every day and every night with their gentle, quiet beauty.

So with the acts of our lives. It is not by great deeds like those of the martyrs that good is to be done; it is by the daily, quiet virtues of life—the Christian temper, the meek forbearance, the spirit of forgiveness, in the husband, the wife, the father, the mother, the friend, the neighbour, that good is to be done. A. Barnes.

As dawns the opening of the year before you Firm in the faith of Jesus ever stand; Through all your pathway, let the Master lead you, Follow the guidance of His loving hand.

Use K. D. C. for indiscretions of diet.

Kindly words, sympathising attentions, watchfulness against wounding men's sensitiveness—these cost very little, but they are priceless in their value. Are they not almost the staple of our daily happiness? From hour to hour, from moment to moment, we are supported, blessed by small kindnesses.

K. D. C. is the justly celebrated "King of Dyspepsia Cures."
