

TORONTO COLLEGE OF MUSIC,

237 SIMCOE STREET, TORONTO.

Under the patronage of His Honour Lieut. Governor and Mrs. Robinson, Sir William and Lady Howland, Lady Parker, the Lord Bishop of Toronto, Col. and Mrs. Gzowski.

Director,

J. Davenport Kerrison,

Formerly Prof. at Grand Conservatory of Music, New York, assisted by able and experienced teachers.

This School of Music, now in its third year, offers superior advantages to Musical Students who may wish to take a graduating course with a view to teaching, or to improve themselves as amateurs. (to such special terms are offered.)

Full course after primary examination, will embrace Piano, Pedal Organ, Voice Culture and Harmony. A successful examination before a Board will entitle the student to a Diploma.
